PREFACE.

THIS Year-Book is published as a convenient handbook of information; and not as a register of any ecclesiastical authority to include or exclude.

The Unitarian Church is not a sect. A sect is something cut off. Unitarians cut no one off, and do not allow themselves to be cut off from the great body of Christendom. The liberal principle, which makes character instead of creed its test, renders their fellowship all-embracing, and their communion the most truly Catholic Church. In the service of that principle, the need of the hour is a more thorough organization of their forces for a more active propagandism.

While every year witnesses on all sides a notable progress in the cause of freedom, fellowship, and character in religion, the past year has brought signal triumphs in the Unitarian ranks. The centennial anniversary of the birth of Channing was celebrated in leading cities of the New World and the Old; many persons of different opinions joining. The cornerstone was laid in Newport of a church in his memory, for the erection of which many grateful admirers made contribution. Large sums have been paid for cancelling church debts contracted in the hopefulness of more prosperous times. New churches have been completed and dedicated in Augusta, Maine, Scituate, Mass., Buffalo, N. Y., and Cleveland, Ohio; while in Athol, Mass., Newport, R. I., St. Louis, Mo., and Ann Arbor, Mich., similar enterprises are going forward. Generous sums have been given to the Prospect Hill School for Girls, in Greenfield, Mass., and for the Theological School at Meadville, Pa.; and the Fund for the endowment of the Harvard Divinity School for the scientific and unsectarian teaching of theology has been carried to completion in the sum of $139,633.

The Ninth Session of the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches was held at Saratoga in September; and of those thus far held it proved to be the largest in attendance and most practical in tone and purpose, evincing an earnest forward look for a more hearty co-operation and organized activity.

Death has taken from our list of ministers the names of Fiske Barrett, Eliphalet P. Crafts, and Frederic A. Whitney. They did their work faithfully.

COLLEGE AND THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL TERMS, COMMENCEMENTS, AND VACATIONS.

POST-OFFICE REGULATIONS, 1881.

DOMESTIC LETTERS. First-Class Matter.—The postage on letters not over one-half oz. to all parts of the United States is 3 cts.; and for each half oz. or fraction thereof of additional weight, 3 cts.; to be always prepaid by postage stamps. There is no limit to the weight of letters. Letters may be registered on payment of a fee of 10 cts. in addition to the regular postage. Postal Cards, 1 ct. Drop or Local Letters, 2 cts. a half oz., at offices where free delivery by carrier is established, prepaid by stamps; at other offices, 1 ct. Paid letters not finding owners at the office named will be reforwarded to the place where the owner is, if known, or returned to the writer, if indorsed with that request, free. When the required stamps are not affixed, letters are sent to the dead-letter office, and thence returned to the writers.

NEWSPAPERS, MAGAZINES, &c., to REGULAR SUBSCRIBERS. Second-Class Matter. (No limitation of weight.)—When mailed from a known office of publication or news agency, and issued regularly, the postage for each pound, or fraction of a pound, is 2 cts.; the matter in all cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing. Newspapers, except weeklies, without regard to weight, and magazines not over 2 oz., deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there, 1 ct. each. Magazines over 2 oz., 2 cts. Publishers must be notified by postmasters when their publications are not taken out of the receiving office for one month, which notice will be sent free. Bills and receipts for subscription may be enclosed in papers or magazines and sent free; but any thing written in the nature of a communication imposes letter postage.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER.—On Books, Pamphlets, occasional publications, transient newspapers and magazines, circulars, engravings, photographs, handbills, posters, blanks, proof-sheets, manuscript copy, if accompanied with proof, maps, and sheet music, the postage (to be prepaid by stamps) on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of books, which may weigh over 4 lbs. Newspapers deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there require only 1 ct. each, without regard to weight; and periodicals require, if under 2 oz., 1 ct., and, for any weight over 2 oz., only 2 cts. each.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.—Letter envelopes, cards, sample cards, plain and ornamental paper, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and other articles of merchandise, which are not, from their form or nature, liable to injure the contents of the mail-bag, or the person of any one engaged in the postal service, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The name of the sender of any article, or the address, may be written in the package or on its outside, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or briefly the number and names of the articles enclosed, and addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender; but any writing of the nature of a letter in or upon any package or article will subject it to letter rates. All matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage. All matter not specified above, or sealed, is charged letter postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $150 in one day, and not exceeding $50 on one order, are issued in the principal offices, on payment of the following fees: Orders not exceeding $15, 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40, 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding 50, 25 cts. There are over 4,900 money-order offices.

FOREIGN LETTERS.—The rate given is for one-half oz. or under. A star (*) against the rate denotes that prepayment is optional, except for registered letters; where there is no star the postage must be prepaid.

Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, 3 cts. Newfoundland, Peru, Ecuador, United States of Colombia, Panama, Aspinwall, Bermudas, Bahamas, Mexico, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Uruguay, Honduras, Guiana, and Venezuela, *5 cts. Chili and Bolivia, 17 cts. West India Islands, via Direct Steamer, 5 cts.; via St. Thomas, 13 cts. Guatemala, 10 cts. Sandwich Islands, 6 cts.

Great Britain and Ireland, France, including Algeria, Belgium, Holland, Spain, also Gibraltar, Portugal, Italy, Prussia, Austria, and German States, Switzerland, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Russia, Greece, Turkey, Egypt, Malta, Persia, North Africa, and Spanish Morocco, *5 cts. If not prepaid, 10 cts. each half oz. will be collected in country of delivery.

East Indies, *5 cts. Africa, West Coast, English, French, Spanish, and Portuguese Possessions, also Liberia, *5 cts.; South (Cape of Good Hope), *15 cts.; East (Zanzibar), 5 cts.

Australia, British mail, via Brindisi, 15 cts.; Mauritius, *5 cts. New Zealand, Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland, via San Francisco, 12 cts.; and to the rest of Australia and Fiji Islands, 5 cts. China, via Brindisi, *13 cts.; via San Francisco, 5 cts. Siam, 10 cts. Philippine Islands, Java, Japan, and Singapore, via San Francisco, *5 cts.

FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS, PRINTED MATTER, and SAMPLES.—Postage must be prepaid by stamps, except to Canada and the Sandwich Islands, to which the domestic rates are charged on all printed matter either transient or to regular subscribers, as the case may be. There is another charge on delivery. To Australia, New Zealand, Fiji Islands, and Siam, 2 cts. each paper; to West Indies, 1 ct. each. Japan, Great Britain and Ireland, German States, France, Algeria, and all countries in Europe, also to Newfoundland, Bahamas, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Uruguay, Venezuela, China, India, Zanzibar, Java, Peru, and Ecuador, newspapers, books, pamphlets, and samples, 1 ct. for each 2 oz., or fraction of 2 oz. Samples limited to 8½ oz. in weight.

FOREIGN REGISTERED LETTERS, &c.—Letters, printed matter, and samples may be registered to Canada and Newfoundland, Bermuda, Bahamas, West Indies, Venezuela, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Uruguay, Peru, Ecuador, to Great Britain and Ireland, and to all the Countries on the Continent of Europe, Egypt, and Northern Africa, also to India, China, Japan, and the Colonies of France, Spain, Portugal, and Netherlands, for a fee of 10 cts. besides the postage, which must be all prepaid.

FOREIGN POSTAL CARDS.—The domestic postal card may be sent to Canada, without any extra stamp, and to Newfoundland, Guiana, Honduras, Mexico, Venezuela, Cuba, Bermuda, Bahamas, Jamaica, Porto Rico, St. Thomas, the European States, Algeria, Egypt, Japan, and Spanish Morocco, China, Persia, India, Singapore, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Uruguay, Peru, Ecuador, and Colonies of France, Spain, Portugal, and Netherlands, by affixing a 1 ct. stamp. (Two-cent postal cards may be found at most post-offices.)

FOREIGN MONEY ORDERS.—Money Orders are issued to Great Britain and Ireland for a fee of 25 cts. for amounts not over $10 for 50 cts. for amounts from $10 to $20, for 70 cts. from $20 to $30, for 85 cts. from $30 to $40 for $1.00 from $40 to $50. To Switzerland and Italy, for amounts not exceeding $50; the fee being 15 cts. for each $10, or fraction of $10. To France, Germany, Canada, and Newfoundland, for 15 cts. for $10, or less, and 15 cts. more for each additional $10, or fraction of $10. Foreign money orders limited to $150 in one day.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1881 there will be four Eclipses, — two of the Sun, and two of the Moon, and a Transit of the planet Mercury over the disk of the Sun.

I. A Partial Eclipse of the Sun, May 27. Invisible at Boston, New York, Washington, and other places near the meridian of Washington, because the Sun will set before the Eclipse begins. At Cincinnati, Ohio, the Eclipse begins at 7h. 14m. P.M., and the lower limb of the Sun begins to set at 7h. 13m. P.M.; a very brief Eclipse may therefore be seen. At Chicago, Ill., Eclipse begins at 6h. 57m. P.M.; the remaining phases occur after sunset. The greatest magnitude is about two digits. At Des Moines, Iowa, Eclipse begins 6h. 4m. P.M. Greatest magnitude about a digit and a half, at 7h. 10m. P.M., and Eclipse ends after sunset.

II. A Total Eclipse of the Moon on the evening of June 11, and morning of June 12, visible throughout the United States. See the following table:—

III. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, Nov. 21, invisible in the Northern Hemisphere.

IV. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon, December 5, invisible in the United States.

V. A Transit of Mercury over the Sun's disk, November 7. The Ingress of the planet on the Sun's disk is visible in the western portion of the United States; but its Egress takes place after sunset in all parts of the United States.

MORNING STARS.

Venus, after May 3, to the end of the year.

Mars, until December 26.

Jupiter, from April 21 to November 12.

Saturn, from April 21 to October 31.

Mercury, until January 26; from March 11 to May 17; from July 17 to August 31; and from November 7 to the end of the year.

EVENING STARS.

Venus, until May 3.

Mars, after December 26.

Jupiter, until April 21, and from November to the end of the year.

Saturn, until April 21, and from October 31 to the end of the year.

Mercury, from January 26 to March 11; from May 17 to July 17; and from August 31 to November 7.

PLANETS BRIGHTEST.

Venus, March 27 and June 9. Mars, December 27. Jupiter, November 13. Saturn, November 1.

On account of the strong twilight in which Mercury is always immersed, near sunset or sunrise, this planet will be taken to be brightest or best seen, when farthest from the Sun, at its greatest elongation, when, moreover, its apparent motion towards or from the Sun is very slow, so that it may be seen with ease several days before and after the time of greatest elongation.

On looking for Mercury at the times given in the following table, or for a few days before or after those of the table, many persons who may not have seen the planet before, will be surprised to find with what ease it may be seen. But without such a table this planet is not readily found except with the instruments of a regular observatory. The table will be sufficiently accurate for other places in the United States as well as Washington.

LIST OF MINISTERS,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all the Unitarian Ministers in America. The rule has been to include all who have been admitted to the Unitarian Ministry by ordination service or, in the case of ordained Ministers from other denominations, by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference, or some recognized ministerial organization, unless such person, once admitted, shall have been dismissed by some such organization, or else have voluntarily withdrawn.

Those marked † are not settled, and the mark has been put against the name of every one who is not the pastor of a parish. A large proportion of these have stated and permanent occupation, or else have retired on account of age, or for other reasons, from the duties of the profession.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

- 1st. To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.
- 2d. To promote union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.
- 3d. To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.
- 4th. To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.
- 5th. To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient,—such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors is divided into Standing Committees, as follows, the Secretary being ex officio Chairman, and the Assistant Secretary a member of each Committee, but not entitled to vote:—

Finance.—Messrs. Wood, Gaffield, Burrage, Bigelow, and James.

Publication.—Messrs. Reynolds, Chaney, De Normandie, Mrs. Ames, and Mrs. Lowe.

New England States.—Messrs. Reynolds, Stewart, Burrage, James, and Willson.

Middle and Southern States.—Messrs. Gaffield, Whitney, Brown, Woodbury, and Stevens.

Western States and Pacific Coast.—Messrs. Jones, Woodbury, Tyler, Horton, and Mrs. Ames.

Foreign Missions.—Messrs. Chaney, Whitney, Bigelow, Stevens, and Mrs. Lowe.

Theological Education.—Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Willson, and Horton.

Executive Committee. — Messrs. Wood, Reynolds, Bigelow, Tyler, Gaffield, Brown, and Woodbury.

* * The Rooms of the Association are at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 11 A.M. till 2 P.M. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I. — The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and co-operate with it for that purpose.

ART. II. — An annual subscription of one dollar shall constitute a person a member, so long as such subscription be paid; and a subscription of thirty dollars shall constitute a person a member for life.

ART. III. — The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one-third shall be chosen annually. But, at the Annual Meeting of 1877, the full number of eighteen shall be chosen, — six for one year, six for two years, and six for three years.

ART. IV. — This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. V. — It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VI. — The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held on the Tuesday before the last Wednesday in May, at such time and place in the city of Boston as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. VII. — Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The by-laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $30 shall constitute a person a member for life," and, through such payment, the following named 1376 persons now occupy that position; of whom 33 (those whose names are in Italics) have been added during the year 1880.

It will be noticed that many of the settled clergymen of the denomination are not members. It is to be hoped that during the coming year, through the generosity of parishioners, the names of many such ministers will be added to the list; and also a much larger number than in any previous year of lay members.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

CONFERENCES.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864; at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted, calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the City of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the City of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.—We sees the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, incense our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God and the building up of the kingdom of his Son.

ARTICLE I.—Herein are the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denominations with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II.—The National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected one in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall remain in office, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III.—The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other churches, associations, or business organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to accredit, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV.—The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V.—Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten—half ministers and half laymen,—who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retained at each election and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI.—The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII.—The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII.—This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX.—Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the wisest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches: inviting correspondence and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday school, charities, and general working, may be set forth, to the end that the conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference,—such as printing the Report, &c.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Andover, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application expressing such desire to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry, and, if he shall have been previously connected with any ministerial body or church not of the Unitarian faith, a certificate of dismission from such organization.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches.—Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Women's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects:—

1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.

2d. To bring all such organizations into association.

3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.

4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.

5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II., Members. — This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this Auxiliary Conference. From each, an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III., Officers. — The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local Conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV., Meetings and Reports. — The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V., Treasurer's Reports. — Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI., Use of Funds. — This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was systematically established in 1816; though instruction had previously been given, to some extent, by the Hollis Professor of Divinity in the College.

The Theological Library numbers 18,500 volumes. The whole number in Harvard University, to which theological students have access, is about 248,000 volumes.

Students may attend any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University. The degree of Bachelor of Divinity will be conferred by the University on all who pass the required examinations.

Students are required to give bonds in the sum of $200 to the Steward, signed by two bondsmen (one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts), or make a sufficient deposit for the payment of term-bills; which, including charges for instruction, rent, and care of room and furniture, and use of class-books, amount to from $250 to $300 annually. Board may be had at from $3.50 to $4.00 a week.

There are scholarships and beneficiary funds, sufficient to meet the above expenses, which are appropriated to those who need pecuniary aid, and who have given evidence of diligent and successful study.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of Boston. Instituted 18:9; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children in the more favored families for the children of the poor.

Its objects are; first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home on Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1867. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. from April 1 to October 1; and from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. from October 1 to April 1.

The annual meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. Kidder, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Craft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent.

Industrial School for Girls, Boston (Dorchester).—Organized November, 1853; incorporated 1854.

This Institution is for training to good conduct and self-support destitute and neglected girls, also girls who cannot be taken care of at home, but whose relatives or friends can afford to pay a small sum for board. The time they are kept in the school is determined by the needs and circumstances of each child. It is supported by donations and subscriptions, and the income of property already received.

Hymn and Tune Book

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME, AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP. Revised Edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised, being a square 16mo, of 517 pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of Psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1 50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; in Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively. A discount of ten per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

Hymn, Tune, and Service Book

FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, varied in matter and arrangement, and so prepared that, with the single exception of the service after the death of a member of the school, all can be used in the regular course of the Sundays. At the same time, one or more of the forms will be found adapted to the special occasions of the Christian year. A collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers is added at the end of the services.

The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces chosen with the utmost care, to secure pleasing, and, at the same time, good music, set to words of pure sentiment, and simple and correct ideas.

The price of the book, strongly and neatly bound in cloth, is $6.00 a dozen.

UNITARIANISM.

UNITARIANISM is belief in the unity of God. In comprehensive sense it includes, with a part of Christendom, Jews, Mohammedans, Deists, and all who worship God as one. For this use, however, the accepted term is Monotheism. Within the ranks of Christendom the name Unitarian is given to those who reject the dogma of the Trinity in its varying phases of a threefold or tri-personal Deity, whether three in substance or only in name and form, and who maintain the essential unity of God as Creator and Father, and the created nature and subordinate rank of Jesus Christ. Within its range opinions about Jesus vary from those that assign him a pre-existent and superangelic rank to an estimate purely human. While the name strictly touches this doctrine only, it is vitally related and gives character to the whole system of belief concerning human nature and need, human life and its purpose, this world and its meaning, and the future world and man's destiny.

UNITARIANISM IS PRIMITIVE CHRISTIANITY.

Unitarianism has accompanied Christianity from the beginning, at least as one form of its faith. Unitarians maintain that their faith is that of the early Church as taught by Jesus Christ and his apostles. They appeal to Jesus as the supreme teacher of Christianity, finding in his word and character the essence of the Gospel. They state their chief tenets in the language of the New Testament without note or comment, "To us there is but one God, the Father;" "This is life eternal to know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." They hold that the doctrine of the Trinity, so startling to Jews trained in the worship of one God and expecting a Messiah of human lineage, would have required a statement more explicit than any found in the Bible record. They hold that the doctrine, at best, is an inference from texts of obscure meaning or doubtful genuineness, every one of which is separately abandoned by prominent Trinitarian scholars as not expressly teaching the doctrine; while the Roman Catholic holds it on the authority of the Church, deeming it not clearly taught in the Bible. Unitarians consider the doctrine of the Trinity a gradual development, as gentiles came into the Church and subjected the Gospel to the influence of Oriental speculations and Greek philosophy. . . .

In seeking the present form of Unitarian faith, it is needless to recount the speculations of earlier times. The tenets of Sabellius and Paul, of Samosata and Arius, also of Servetus and the Socini, in their special forms sharing the crudities of contemporaneous thought, have largely passed away. They are not to be quoted as authority. They are simply in the line of historical progress, agreeing only in the single fundamental thought that God is one, and Jesus Christ a created and subordinate being.

UNITARIANISM OF TO-DAY.

Unitarianism is characteristically not a fixed dogmatic statement, but a movement of ever-enlarging faith. It welcomes inquiry, progress, and diversity of individual thought in the unity of spiritual fellowship. With faith in the unity of God as its key-note, it asserts the unity of all truth in nature, history, experience, and the Bible; the unity of the Church as based on character, not on dogma; and the unity of spiritual life in this world and the next. Its leading principles are, first, the freedom of every individual soul to seek the highest truth and to obey it; and, second, that character is the test of Christian discipleship. Unitarians declare life, not dogma, to be the essence of Christianity. They deem Christianity to be essentially a reasonable religion, according with the truths of nature, instructing reason and appealing to it as interpreter and judge. They hold it to be a progressive religion; that its principles, like the axioms of mathematics, are eternally true, but that its germs unfold with the increasing intelligence of mankind. They deem important, right belief for right living, and emphasize the value of righteousness as establishing the kingdom of God on earth, and as alone fitting the soul for his kingdom above. They refuse to formulate their belief in fixed creeds of ecclesiastical and exclusive authority, because these never settle open questions, but only start fresh controversy; because they limit inquiry and hinder progress; and because they make dogma instead of character, and opinion instead of spiritual purpose, the bases and tests of fellowship.

FAITH IN GOD.

Yet, while refusing any authoritative creed statement, there is an unwritten consensus of faith in which Unitarians are substantially agreed. They believe in the one God as the Creator of the universe and Father of all souls; a Father who wills man's welfare, desiring that not even the least shall perish; the Fatherly Friend in all worlds, who does not wait for forgiveness and favor to be purchased, but freely pours forth blessing on all who will accept it; Father of the sinner as of the saint, seeking every wanderer with his pursuing love, and punishing the erring, not for his pleasure, but for their profit, that they may become partakers of his holiness.

FAITH IN MAN.

Unitarians believe in man as naturally neither saint nor sinner; that his nature is not corrupt and ~~de~~ ded, but undeveloped and incomplete; that he inherits tendencies to good as well as to evil, and that he is sinful only as he knowingly and wilfully does wrong; that he needs regeneration, the unfolding and renewal of his spiritual nature, which he experiences by obedience to the truth under that divine influence which is called the Holy Spirit; that, as a child of the Infinite, allied to the Supreme Goodness by ties that cannot be sundered, having in him a spark of divinity that makes his ultimate redemption an inextinguishable hope, he yet needs to be taught and inspired of God, but with the aid of the divine grace, which is his birthright privilege, he is able to climb to celestial summits.

FAITH IN CHRIST.

Unitarians believe in Jesus Christ, as the four evangelists describe him, as at once Son of God and Son of man. They care little for metaphysical speculation about the mystery of his nature, but emphasize his word and life as a practical help for human salvation. They hold that he is our Saviour as he becomes to us the Light of the World, the Fountain of Living Water, and the Bread of Life; our Saviour by illustrating the eternal principles of right, inspiring his followers to holiness, and imparting life more abundantly; our Saviour so far as he leads and helps us to be large-hearted, truth-seeking, pure, loving, and devout; that he came into the world to bear testimony to the truth, and was here not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and that he proved himself humanity's Lord and Leader by his divine helpfulness. Under the influence of elevated views of man's spiritual nature, affirming his innate power of apprehending religious truth, Unitarianism, in declaring the humanity of Christ, does not bring Jesus down, but lifts humanity up. It asserts that Jesus was purely human only to show that human nature itself is, in the phrase of Athanasius, homoousian, of the same substance with God, and that Jesus is the best expression of that divine humanity which is the birthright and promised destiny of all souls.

While they are jealous of ecclesiastical authority or dictation, and perpetually refuse to limit their belief by formula, the Unitarians have, in public assembly of the American Unitarian Association, and in representative meetings of their National and Local Conferences, repeatedly reaffirmed their attitude of Christian discipleship, and shown that they hold themselves to be a body of believers upon the Christian foundation and within the Christian Church. They deem the mind of Christ the best index of Christianity. For the sources of Unitarian thought, therefore, they refer to Unitarian literature, more especially to the New Testament, and supremely to the word and life of Jesus Christ.

PREFACE.

WITH this, a new number of the Year-Book is presented to the members of the Unitarian body. It furnishes a carefully prepared statement of the relations of our parishes and ministers. It shows what Associations, Conferences, Societies, we have within our borders, and how they are organized. It is, in short, a census of the instruments and methods by which we seek to diffuse pure Christianity and to increase practical righteousness in the world.

At the close of the Year of our Lord 1881, looking backward, we find no reason for discouragement. The work of the Association has gone on steadily. The collections, if still painfully meagre, have increased. Some parishes, burdened by debt, have thrown off their load, and entered with fresh vigor upon their proper work. New parishes, whose future seems full of promise, have been organized. The circle of missionary effort has been largely extended. One great enterprise, the building of a new church at Ann Arbor, has been ensured.

At the opening of the year 1882, looking forward, we see work enough to be done. — great spiritual hunger needing to be fed; painful doubts seeking a more adequate faith; a great body of men and women, largely outside organized religion, to be brought within the circle of high spiritual influence. It is the plain duty of the Unitarian body to undertake some of this work. To do it we need, not more and better instruments and methods, but a finer sense of responsibility for the truth which has been committed to us; a deeper conviction that we are our brother's keepers; more gladness to give, not only for the relief of man's physical wants, but for his growth in true religion. The question of our enlargement — nay, the question of our continued existence — resolves itself into the question, How much or how little missionary zeal we have. Shall we enter into that kingdom of noble and permanent influence which God's providence and man's need have opened to us? Not without some increase of earnestness; not without some more solemn conviction of the value of the truth we have apprehended; not unless, with old David, we are willing that our offering should cost us something.

It is with feelings of sincere grief, and yet not without sacred satisfaction, that we record the names of the ministers who during the year have passed on; for they were good workmen, and they leave places of usefulness vacant, and sowed seed whose harvest shall be perennial. We give the long list: Horatio Alger, George Gibbs Channing, Henry Francis Edes, Richard Lemin Herbert, George Washington Hosmer, George Leonard, Calvin Lincoln, Richard Metcalf, Josiah Moore, Mellish Irving Motte, William Newell, Preserved Smith, James William Thompson, John Fothergill Waterhouse Ware. Never in any one year have so many good and valued men been taken.

POSTAL REGULATIONS, 1882.

POSTAGE FOR MATTER IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POSTAGE ON EVERY DESCRIPTION OF CORRESPONDENCE, EXCEPT SECOND-CLASS MATTER, MUST BE PREPAID BY POSTAGE STAMPS.

FIRST-CLASS MATTER.—Letters. The postage on letters not over one half oz to all parts of the United States is 3 cts.; and for each half oz. or fraction thereof of additional weight, 3 cts. Articles sealed are charged as letters. Postal Cards, 1 ct. Drop, or Local Letters, to be delivered in the office where mailed, 2 cts. a half oz., at offices where free delivery by carrier is established, at other offices, 1 ct. Paid letters not delivered at the first office named will be re-forwarded to the place where the owner is, if known, or returned to the writer, if indorsed with that request, free. Letters to be mailed from one office to another will not be sent unless prepaid at least 3 cts.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER—Newspapers and Periodicals to regular subscribers. (No limitation of weight.)—When mailed from a known office of publication or news agency, and issued regularly, the postage for each pound, or fraction of a pound, is 2 cts.; the matter in all cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing. Newspapers, except weeklies, without regard to weight, and magazines not over 2 oz., deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there, 1 ct. each. Magazines over 2 oz., 2 cts.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER.—On Transient Newspapers and Magazines, Books, Pamphlets, and occasional publications, circulars, engravings, photographs, handbills, posters, blanks, proof sheets, manuscript copy if accompanied with proof, maps, and sheet music, the postage on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of books, which may weigh over 4 lbs. Newspapers, except weeklies, deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there, require only 1 ct. each, without regard to weight; and periodicals require, if under 2 oz., 1 ct., and, for any weight over 2 oz., only 2 cts. each.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.—Letter envelopes (whether printed or plain), cards, sample cards, plain and ornamental paper, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and other articles of merchandise which are not in any way liable to injure the contents of the mail-bag, or the person of any one engaged in the postal service, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The name of the sender of any article, or the address, may be written in the package or on its outside, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or briefly the number and names of the articles enclosed, and addresses may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender, but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION. All mail matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $150 in one day, and not exceeding $50 on one order, are issued in the principal offices, on payment of the following fees: Orders not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, — 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40, — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts. There are over 5,000 money-order offices.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The rate given is for one half oz. or under. A star (*) against the rate denotes that prepayment is optional, except for registered letters; where there is no star the postage must be prepaid.

It is forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries pieces of coin, jewelry of any kind, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates of postage, unless they are actually trade-samples, and are enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination of the contents.

THE POSTAL UNION.—Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, 3 cts. Articles of merchandise are expressly excluded from the mails to Canada. To the other portions of the Postal Union, comprising chiefly European Countries, — Turkey in Asia, Mauritius, Philippine Islands, Java, Japan, Singapore, India, West Africa, Sandwich Islands, Newfoundland, St. Pierre, Miquelon, Peru, Ecuador, Chili, United States of Colombia, Panama, Aspinwall, Bermudas, Bahamas, Mexico, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Uruguay, Honduras, Guiana, Guatemala, and Venezuela, — the postage on letters is *5 cts. the half oz., on postal cards 2 cts. each, and on newspapers, books, and other printed matter, also samples of merchandise, 1 ct. for 2 oz., or fraction. The weight of printed matter is restricted to 4 lbs. 6 oz., and samples are limited to 8½ oz.

ECLIPSES.

In the year 1882 there will be two Eclipses of the Sun, no Eclipse of the Moon, and a Transit of Venus over the disk of the Sun.

I. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, May 17, not visible in America, the line of totality passing across Africa and Asia, and visible as a Partial Eclipse in Europe.

II. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, November 10, not visible in America, the principal eclipses being confined to the Southern portions of the Pacific Ocean.

III. A Transit of the planet Venus over the disk of the Sun, on December 6, visible throughout the United States. There will be four contacts of the circular disks, or limbs, of the Sun and planet, namely, a first external contact of the limbs, and then, after an interval of about twenty-one minutes of time, the second contact, or first internal contact, will take place. After an interval of about six hours, the third contact, or second internal contact, will take place, and about twenty-one minutes after the third, the fourth contact, or second external contact, will complete the Transit.

The times of these four contacts are given in the following table. —

LIST OF MINISTERS,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all the Unitarian Ministers in America. The rule has been to include all who have been admitted to the Unitarian Ministry by ordination service, or, in the case of ordained Ministers from other denominations, by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference, or some recognized ministerial organization, unless such person, once admitted, shall have been dismissed by some such organization, or else have voluntarily withdrawn.

Those marked † are not settled, and the mark has been put against the name of every one who is not the pastor of a parish. A large proportion of these have stated and permanent occupation, or else have retired on account of age, or for other reasons, from the duties of the profession.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st. To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d. To promote union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d. To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th. To send missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th. To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, — such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors is divided into Standing Committees, as follows, the Secretary being ex officio Chairman, and the Assistant Secretary a member of each Committee, but not entitled to vote:—

Finance. — Messrs. Wood, Gaffield, Burrage, Bigelow, and James.

Publication. — Messrs. Chaney, De Normandie, Putnam, Mrs. Lowe, and Miss Channing.

New England States. — Messrs. Stewart, Burrage, James, Willson, and Wood.

Middle and Southern States. — Messrs. Gaffield, Whitney, Brown, Woodbury, and Stevens.

Western States and Pacific Coast. — Messrs. Jones, Woodbury, Tyler, Horton, and Miss Channing.

Foreign Missions. — Messrs. Chaney, Whitney, Bigelow, Stevens, and Mrs. Lowe.

Theological Education. — Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Willson, and Horton.

Executive Committee.—Messrs. Wood, Bigelow, Gaffield, Brown, Woodbury, Burage, and De Normandie.

* The Rooms of the Association are at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M.,—that is, when not away from the city at Conferences, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.—The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and cooperate with it for that purpose.

ART. II.—An annual subscription of one dollar shall constitute a person a member so long as such subscription be paid; and a subscription of thirty dollars shall constitute a person a member for life.

ART. III.—The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one third shall be chosen annually. But, at the Annual Meeting of 1877, the full number of eighteen shall be chosen,—six for one year, six for two years, and six for three years.

ART. IV.—This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. V.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VI.—The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held on the Tuesday before the last Wednesday in May, at such time and place in the city of Boston as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given, by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. VII.—Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The by-laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $30 shall constitute a person a member for life," and, through such payment, the following named 1398 persons now occupy that position; of whom 76 (those whose names are in Italics) have been added during the year 1881.

It will be noticed that many of the settled clergymen of the denomination are not members. It is to be hoped that during the coming year, through the generosity of parishioners, the names of many such ministers will be added to the list; and also a much larger number of lay members than in any previous year.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

CONFERENCES.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864: at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted, calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the City of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.—We recognize the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and co-operation in this time, and we are moved by the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prosecute them by a united effort, and by the devotion of their lives and talents to the service of God, and the building up of the Kingdom of his Son.

ART. I.—There is the Christian community of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, united in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and Universalist churches, to the end of erecting and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II.—This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected or elected by vote, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall only be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III.—The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other recognized assemblies, or similar organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV.—The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V.—Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retired at each election and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI.—The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII.—The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII.—This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX.—Renewing our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the widest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of the Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially commending to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the next year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence and reports to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday school, churches, and general work may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, etc.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Andover, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry, and, if he shall have been previously connected with any ministerial body or church not of the Unitarian faith, a certificate of dismission from such organization.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches. — Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects.—We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1889, hereby organize ourselves into a Women's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects:—

- 1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.
- 2d. To bring all such organizations into association.
- 3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.
- 4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.
- 5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II., Members.—This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III., Officers.—The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local Conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV., Meetings and Reports.—The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V., Treasurer's Reports.—Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI., Use of Funds. — This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was systematically established in 1816; though instruction had previously been given, to some extent, by the Hollis Professor of Divinity in the College.

The Theological Library numbers 19,000 volumes. The Library of Harvard University, to which theological students have access, and which is rich in theological literature, contains 192,000 volumes.

Students may attend any exercises, for which they are fitted, in other departments of the University. The degree of Bachelor of Divinity will be conferred by the University on all who pass the required examinations.

Students are required to give bonds in the sum of $200 to the Steward, signed by two bondsmen (one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts), or make a sufficient deposit for the payment of term-bills; which, including charges for instruction, rent, and care of room and furniture, and use of class-books, amount to from $250 to $300 annually. Board may be had at from $3.50 to $4.00 a week.

There are scholarships and beneficiary funds, sufficient to meet the above expenses, which are appropriated to those who need pecuniary aid, and who have given evidence of diligent and successful study.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

A revised catalogue of 1,452 volumes, issued in May, 1878, contains the titles of all books recommended by the Commission since its organization to that date. A list of books of reference for Sunday-school teachers is appended to the catalogue, and also printed in a separate pamphlet. Supplements to this catalogue will appear annually.

A list of books for general reading, adapted to the use of young persons, and intended also as a guide in the formation of small libraries, has been prepared by the Commission, and issued in a separate pamphlet.

These catalogues are for sale at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-school Society, 7 Tremont Place, Boston, Mass.

The officers of the Commission are:—

Mrs. Stephen H. Bullard, President and Chairman of the Business Committee; Miss Caroline Soule, Librarian; Miss Harriet W. Hall, Mrs. Theodore Lyman, Miss Charlotte A. Hedge, Miss Abby M. Storer, Chairmen of Committees on Books.

Benevolent Fraternity of Churches of Boston. — Organized 1834; incorporated 1839.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The annual meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday of March, and the meeting for organization is on the fourth Sunday of March. The other regular meetings are on the first Sunday of June, the second Sunday of October, and the second Sunday of December.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Edward S. Grew, Treasurer; Charles Faulkner, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of Boston. Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children, in the more favored families, for the children of the poor.

Its objects are, first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, provision being first made for the parents, and relieving such necessities as will save them from violence, poverty, and destitution; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian charity and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission House, Tenut Street, opposite Common Street, was achieved March 22, 1864. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily housed, while homes are procured for them.

The office of the officers of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent of one of the missions may be reached every, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

The annual meeting for the election of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. K. Allen, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Craft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent.

Industrial School for Girls, Boston (Dorchester). Organized November, 1853; incorporated 1854.

This Institution is for training in good conduct and self-support destitute and neglected girls, some of whom cannot be taken care of at home, but whose relatives or friends can afford to pay a small sum for board. The time they are kept in the school is determined by the needs and circumstances of each child. It is supported by donations and subscriptions, and the income of property already received.

Miss Anna C. P. Rogers, 133 Jay Street, President; William S. Hall, Treasurer; Miss Ellen L. Parkman, 16 Brimmer Street, Vice-President; Miss Mary L. Hall, Dorchester, Secretary; Mrs. Emily S. Orr, 76 Marlboro' Street, and Miss Frances R. Morse, 12 Marlboro' Street, Admission Committee.

The Temporary Home for the Destitute, Boston. — Established 1847; incorporated 1852.

This Institution, at 1 Pine Place, Boston, is intended as a temporary home for children of all ages. It is supported by subscriptions, donations, and income of property derived from donations.

John Ayres, President; John D. Williams, Treasurer; S. Parkman Blake, Jr., Clerk; Mrs. Annie L. Gwynne, Matron.

Home for Aged Colored Women, No 27 Myrtle Street, Boston. — Founded Jan. 18, 1860.

The home can accommodate about twenty inmates. Present number, twenty. The house is owned by the corporation. The expenses (about $3,500 yearly) are met by annual subscriptions and gifts.

S. Harris Austin, President; Lewis W. Tappan, Jr., Treasurer; Miss Mary G. Curtis, Clerk.

Female Benevolent Society, Providence, R. I. — Organized Dec. 12, 1815.

This Society was formed by ladies connected with the First Congregational Church in Providence. Its object is the relief of the destitute, in the parish and beyond, as far as its means allow.

Mrs. Edward Pearce, President; Mrs. Mary R. Tibbetts, Treasurer; Miss Abby P. Balch, Secretary.

Children's Mission to Destitute Children, Providence, R. I. — Formed 1857; incorporated 1867.

The object of this Society is to supply needed clothing to destitute children, and keep them in the Sunday and day schools.

James Shaw, President; Joseph C. Johnson, Vice-President; Samuel H. Tingley, Treasurer; Mrs. Caroline M. N. Alden, Secretary.

Women's Unitarian Union for Christian Work, Salem, Mass. — Organized May, 1877.

Its objects are: to advance the interests of the Unitarian faith, especially by encouraging the organized work of women for the various objects needing their help; to create a closer fellowship between our parishes; and to lend a helping hand to the feeble and struggling churches of our denomination.

Mrs. Frederick Israel, President; Mrs. M. A. S. Osgood, Recording Secretary; Miss Caroline E. Bemis, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Eliza G. Newhall, Treasurer.

Unitarian Educational Society, New Hampshire. — Incorporated July 19, 1879.

Joseph C. A. Hill, Concord, President; Rev. James De Normandie, Portsmouth, Vice-President; Frank W. Proctor, Manchester, Clerk; Lewis Downing, Jr., Concord, Treasurer.

ORGANIZATIONS NOT DENOMINATIONAL.

Boston Young Men's Christian Union. — Organized in 1851; incorporated in 1852.

The objects of this organization are: — 1st, to furnish to the young men of Boston and vicinity a place of pleasant resort, where they will meet agreeable companions, and where the influences will be beneficial and elevating; 2d, To provide them with opportunities for self improvement and healthful recreation, at little or no expense; 3d, To give them opportunities to do good, by engaging in charitable and benevolent work.

The rooms, at 18 Boylston Street, are open every day, Sundays included, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Membership for one year, one dollar; subscription membership, five dollars a year; for life, twenty five dollars. All young men residing in Boston and the vicinity are cordially invited to become members of the Society.

Board of Directors. William H. Baldwin, President; Henry H. Sprague, Vice-President; William B. Clarke, Secretary; William L. Richardson, Treasurer; Frederic S. Clarke, Joseph F. Brown, Jr., William F. Whitecomb, Calvin G. Hartshorn, Leonard Stone, Nathaniel B. Farrar.

Union for Christian Work, Providence, R. I. — Organized March 3, 1868.

The aim of this Society is to furnish such occupation, amusements, and surroundings as shall weaken the power of temptation and arouse the higher nature of all who come within its influence.

Its present work is as follows: 1. A pleasant room for reading and amusement. Open daily from 4 to 10 P. M. Sundays from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 P. M. Free to all. 2. A well selected library of nearly 3,000 volumes. Free to all. 3. Rooms for street boys, open Saturday nights during the winter months in various parts of the city, where, by books and games, by sympathy and kindness, they can be influenced for good. 4. Depot for collecting books, magazines, and papers, and distributing them to seamen sailing from this port, and to such others as need them. 5. Flower mission, for the distribution of flowers to the sick and infirm, the hospital, the homes for the aged, etc. Other work of a kindred nature will be undertaken, as opportunity presents itself.

Elisha S. Aldrich, President; Miss Sally E. Randolph, Secretary; William M. Bailey, Jr., Treasurer.

Hymn and Tune Book

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME, AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised, being a square 16mo, of 517 pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of Psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; in Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively. A discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, varied in matter and arrangement, and so prepared that, with the single exception of the service after the death of a member of the school, all can be used in the regular course of the Sundays. At the same time, one or more of the forms will be found adapted to the special occasions of the Christian Year. A collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers is added at the end of the services.

The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces chosen with the utmost care, to secure pleasing, and, at the same time, good music, set to words of pure sentiment, and simple and correct ideas.

The price of the book, strongly and neatly bound in cloth, is $6.00 a dozen.

THE GREAT MERIT OF THE REVISED HYMN AND TUNE BOOK OF THE AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

Is shown by the following testimony of Ministers who have learned its worth by actual use in their churches, in some cases the old edition of the same work having been given up for the Revised:—

From Rev. S. C. BEACH,

Pastor of the First Parish, Dedham, Mass.

"We took the book as it came out, partly as a matter of faith and hope, though it was apparent at a glance that, in its new edition, the first venture of the Association had been not only 'revised,' but improved. Four years' experience has convinced us that in its present form the book is even better than it seemed. I have heard this opinion expressed more than once by more than one of my parishioners, whose opinion is the real test."

Rev. S. C. BEANE,

Second Congregational Society, Concord, N. H.

"I think I speak for all our people in saying that our Sunday services have been greatly improved by its introduction. The hymns are sufficiently various in theme and sentiment to suit all occasions, with very few to spare as useless or objectionable; and the music comprises more of the best and fewer of the poor tunes than any other that I have examined."

Rev. J. T. BIXBY,

Independent Congregational Church, Meadville, Pa.

"I have used the Revised Hymn and Tune Book for the last three years in our church, with the highest satisfaction both to myself and the whole congregation. The fulness, variety, and good taste exhibited in its selection of hymns, and the fine feeling shown in their musical setting, the judicious arrangement of the themes, and the many excellent practical details of the work, — especially the admirable combination exhibited in it of generous welcome to the fresh thought and stirring strains of our latest sacred poetry, united with reverential conservation of the familiar and time-honored hymns, endeared to Christendom by long and tender association, — place it, in my judgment, facile princeps amongst works of its character for the use of our Unitarian congregations."

Rev. S. H. CAMP,

Third Unitarian Society, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I am very glad to give a word of commendation for the Revised Hymn and Tune Book. We have used it nearly two years, and can most heartily and gratefully testify to its worth."

Rev. ROBERT COLLYER,

Church of the Messiah, New York, N. Y.

"I used the Revised Hymn and Tune Book with great satisfaction. I think it may still be improved, but then so may any book we can lay our hands on. Still, as the book stands, it is really a noble collection, and I find in it hymns and music to answer to all sermons, services, moods, and experiences."

Rev. W. H. CUDWORTH,

Church of our Father, Boston, Mass.

"Ever since its publication, the new Hymn and Tune Book has been in use by my people. They have sung the tunes by note, as well as with the hymns, in meetings for special practice, and, without a solitary exception, commend it as a book well worthy adoption in all our parishes."

Rev. FREDERICK FROTHINGHAM,

First Congregational Society, Milton, Mass.

"I am glad to bear witness to the excellence of the Revised Hymn and Tune Book. Though I cannot say it leaves nothing to be desired, yet, as far as I am aware, it is much superior to any other that has yet appeared within our body. The difficulties attending the preparation of such a book only one who undertakes it knows. Its compiler certainly deserves congratulation on his success in overcoming them."

Rev. BROOKE HERFORD,Church of the Messiah, Chicago, Ill.

"We adopted the Revised Hymn and Tune Book as soon as published, and have, I think, thoroughly enjoyed it. I gave some lectures on the hymns and hymn-writers of early and later times, as instructed in its sections, our choir helping me by rendering all hymns of special interest as I went along, and the result was that the congregation felt an interest in it which time and use have not lessened."

Rev. J. B. GREEN,Unitarian Congregational Society, Brattleboro', Vt.

"The hymns are not surpassed by any collection known to me (and I have used many); and the tunes are generally well adapted for congregational singing. The wonder is that the book is not more generally in use among our churches."

Rev. J. C. KIMBALL,First Unitarian Society, Hartford, Ct.

"I have used the Revised Hymn and Tune Book ever since it was published, — first in Newport, R. I., and then here in Hartford. In both places, it has given great satisfaction."

Rev. A. C. NICKERSON,First Parish, Templeton, Mass.

"The Revised Hymn and Tune Book I consider the richest, both in words and music, which I have ever seen arranged for church purposes. Its merits grow upon one with its use."

Rev. M. K. SCHERMERHORN,First Unitarian Society, Newport, R. I.

"We have used it here in Newport for nearly four years; and I am certain that nearly everybody in our congregation has grown deeply attached to it, and prizes it highly as a help to devotion in our congregational services."

Rev. C. A. STAPLES,First Parish, Lexington, Mass.

"I have used the Revised Edition of the Hymn and Tune Book for nearly three years in the First Congregational Church at Providence, and now in the First Church of Lexington, and I have found it highly satisfactory to the people of both. It is, to my mind, the best selection of hymns we have in our Liberal churches, and the music is of a high order of excellence."

Rev. R. P. STEBBINS, D.D.,First Unitarian Society, Newton Centre, Mass.

"I have used the Revised Hymn and Tune Book for four years, and find it admirably adapted to purposes of public worship and private reading. It would be difficult to improve it essentially in any particular."

Rev. FRANCIS TIFFANY,First Unitarian Society, West Newton, Mass.

"Our society has used the Revised Edition of the Hymn and Tune Book for two years, and with great satisfaction. The collection embraces a large number of the most beautiful hymns in the language, and the music to which they are set is of the highest and purest character. With us, the church singing is congregational, and we find the book eminently well adapted to that end."

Rev. C. W. WENDTE,First Unitarian Church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"We have used the New Hymn and Tune Book for two years past with great satisfaction. While there are some things in it I regret, yet, take it for all in all, the music (which is particularly well chosen), the poetry, the type, and paper, etc., it is the best collection for congregational use I have ever seen, and we owe Mr. Shippen a lasting debt for its production."

Rev. E. J. YOUNG,First Parish, Waltham, Mass.

"The revised Hymn and Tune Book for the Church and the Home is a collection of an exceptionally high order of merit. It has been used by our Society with general satisfaction, and has added much to the interest in our services. I know of no work of the kind which can be compared with it in the wealth and variety of its contents, or which is so well fitted to awaken and increase the devotional spirit."

P R E F A C E.

THIS new number of the Year-Book contains the usual lists of Unitarian parishes and ministers, of Associations, Conferences, and Societies. One feature has been added. In former years, in the list of ministers, the names of a few persons, pastors or stated supplies of Unitarian parishes, have not been found; some because they were not ordained, some because they belonged to other religious bodies, a few because they did not desire their names inserted. This year, for convenience of reference, a list of such persons has been added.

The year closes cheerfully. The contributions to the general treasury, so far as received, are considerably in advance of those of the last few years. Under the inspiration of the National Conference, several important enterprises have been taken up. We mention the movement to pay the debt of the New Orleans church, to complete the additional Meadville endowment, to aid the societies at Des Moines and Madison to build church edifices, and to collect funds needful for Rev. A. D. Mayo's Southern work. The visit of Prof. John Kovács, which has resulted in the raising of a large sum for the cause of theological education in Hungary, is an event of peculiar interest. Nor should we fail to mention the contemplated school at Cleveland, and the munificent offer for its endowment made by J. H. Wade, Esq., of that city.

A few years ago the laymen of Chicago formed an association, under the name of the Channing Club, with the purpose of promoting the better acquaintance of its members, and of increasing their interest in the Unitarian word of truth. Already the work of this body has amply justified its creation. This year a similar organization of the laymen of Boston and vicinity has come into existence, giving promise of great power and influence for good. We welcome all new and living methods. While the old creeds and doctrines are losing their hold, all the more the word of a devout and earnest yet liberal Christianity needs to be preached tenfold more widely and with tenfold more power.

We have this year to regret the loss by death of seven from the ministry. They were all men without a stain, faithful and useful. Some were known wherever the Unitarian name has been spoken. We record them: Adams Ayer, Henry Whitney Bellows, Orville Dewey, James Tracy Hewes, George Mathias Rice, Chandler Robbins, Ivory Franklin Waterhouse.

POSTAL REGULATIONS, 1883.

POSTAGE FOR MATTER IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POSTAGE ON EVERY DESCRIPTION OF CORRESPONDENCE, EXCEPT SECOND-CLASS MATTER, MUST BE PREPAID, AT LEAST PARTLY, BY POSTAGE STAMPS.

FIRST CLASS MATTER. — Letters. The postage on letters to all parts of the United States is 3 cts. for each half oz. or fraction thereof. Articles sealed or closed against inspection are charged as letters. Postal Cards, with only the address written on the face, 1 ct. Drop or Local Letters to be delivered in the office where mailed, 2 cts. a half oz., at offices where free delivery by carrier is established, at other offices, 1 ct. Prepaid letters, not delivered at the first office named, will be reforwarded to the place where the owner is, if known, or returned to the writer, if addressed with that request, free. Letters to be mailed from one office to another will not be sent unless prepaid at least 3 cts.

SECOND CLASS MATTER — Newspapers and Periodicals to regular subscribers. (No limitation of weight.) — When mailed from a known office of publication or news agency, and issued regularly not less than four times a year, the postage for each pound or fraction is 2 cts.; the matter in all cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing. Newspapers, except weeklies, without regard to weight, and magazines not over 2 oz., deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there, 1 ct. each. Magazines over 2 oz., 2 cts.

THIRD CLASS MATTER. — On Transient Newspapers and Magazines, Books, Pamphlets, and occasional publications, circulars, engravings, photographs, posters, blanks, proof sheets, manuscript copy if accompanied with proof, valentines, and sheet-music, the postage on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of books, which may weigh over 4 lbs. Newspapers, except weeklies, deposited in letter-carrier offices for delivery there, require only 1 ct. each, without regard to weight; and periodicals require, if under 2 oz., 1 ct., and, for any weight over 2 oz., only 2 cts. each.

FOURTH CLASS MATTER. — Letter envelopes (whether printed or plain), cards, sample cards, plain and ornamental paper, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and other articles of merchandise which are not in any way liable to injure the contents of the mail-bag, or the person of any one engaged in the postal service, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The name of the sender of any article, or the address, may be written in the package or on its outside, with the word "from" above or preceding the same; or, briefly, the number and names of the articles enclosed, and addresses, may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender; but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION. All mail matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $150 in one day, and not exceeding $50 on one order, are issued in the principal offices on payment of the following fees: Orders not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, — 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40 — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts. There are over 5,300 money-order offices.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The rate given is for one half oz. or under. A star (*) against the rate means that prepayment is optional, but on registered matter the postage must be prepaid in full.

It is forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries pieces of coin, jewelry of any kind, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates of postage unless they are actually trade-samples, and also are enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination of the contents.

THE POSTAL UNION. — Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, letters, 3 cts. All kinds of printed matter the same as in the United States. Articles of merchandise are expressly excluded from the mails to Canada. To the other portions of the Postal Union, comprising all European Countries, and Aspinwall, West Africa, Bermudas, Bahamas, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Chili, Costa Rica, China, Ecuador, Guiana, Guatemala, Honduras, India, Java, Japan, Mauritius, Mexico, Miquelon, Newfoundland, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Philippine Islands, Singapore, St. Pierre, Sandwich Islands, Turkey in Asia, U. S. of Colombia, Uruguay, Venezuela, and West Indies, — the postage on letters is 15 cts. the half oz., on postal cards 2 cts. each, and on newspapers, books, and other printed matter, also samples of merchandise, 1 ct. for 2 oz. or fraction. The weight of printed matter is restricted to 4 lbs. 6 oz.; samples are limited to 8½ oz., except to Belgium, France, Great Britain, and Switzerland, to which places the limit is 12 oz.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES NOT IN THE POSTAL UNION. — Letters, Africa, South (Cape of Good Hope, Natal), 15 cts.; Africa, East (Zanzibar), 5 cts.; Australia, all portions via Brindisi, 15 cts.; New Zealand, Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland, via San Francisco, 12 cts.; West and South Australia, and Fiji, and other islands in the Pacific Ocean not belonging to the Postal Union, 5 cts.; Bolivia, 17 cts.; Madagascar, 21 cts.; Patagonia, 27 cts.; St. Helena, 27 cts.; Siam, 10 cts.; Tasmania, 5 cts.

NEWSPAPERS. — To Australia, New Zealand, Fiji Islands, and Siam, 2 cts. each paper. To Madagascar and Natal, 4 cts.; to Patagonia and St. Helena, 3 cts. each paper.

LIST OF MINISTERS,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all the Unitarian Ministers in America. The rule has been to include all who have been admitted to the Unitarian Ministry by ordination service, or, in the case of ordained Ministers from other denominations, by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference, or some recognized ministerial organization, unless such person, once admitted, shall have been disavowed by some such organization, or else have voluntarily withdrawn.

Those named cannot be settled, and the name has been put against the name of every one who is not the pastor of a parish. A large proportion of these have stated and permanent occupation, or else have retired on account of age, or for other reasons, from the duties of the profession.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st, To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d, To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d, To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th, To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th, To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, — such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

*. The Records of the Association are at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may always be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M., — that is, when not away from the city at Conventions, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I. — The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and co-operate with it for that purpose.

ART. II. — An annual subscription of one dollar shall constitute a person a member so long as such subscription be paid; and a subscription of thirty dollars shall constitute a person a member for life.

ART. III. — The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-President, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one third shall be chosen annually. But, at the Annual Meeting of 1877, the full number of eighteen shall be chosen, — six for one year, six for two years, and six for three years.

ART. IV. — This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum, and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number or between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. V. — It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures, as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VI. — The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held on the Tuesday before the last Wednesday in May, at such time and place in the city of Boston as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given, by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. VII. — Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The by-laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $30 shall constitute a person a member for life," and, through such payment, the following named 1459 persons now occupy that position; of whom 90 (those whose names are in Italics) have been added during the year 1882.

It will be noticed that many of the settled clergymen of the denomination are not members. It is to be hoped that during the coming year, through the generosity of parishioners, the names of many such ministers will be added to the list; and also a much larger number of lay members than in any previous year.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

CONFERENCES.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864; at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the city of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880; the tenth, in Saratoga, Sept. 19, 20, 21, and 22, 1882.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God, and the building up of the Kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retired at each election, and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI. — The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the widest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

ART. X. — While we believe that the Preamble and Articles of our Constitution fairly represent the opinions of the majority of our churches, yet we wish distinctly to put on record our declaration that they are no authoritative test of Unitarianism, and are not intended to exclude from our fellowship any who, while differing from us in belief, are in general sympathy with our purposes and practical aims.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, inviting them to a term of conference, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in its body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be presented with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may seem appropriate; but especially commenting to the churches and organizations on the resolutions of the Conference as regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the use of the year, the special objects to which they would direct its attention, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in its body, and of the state of the churches and churches, receiving correspondence and sending reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday school, churches, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed: and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The minutes of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any churches may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference,—such as printing the Report, &c.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Meadville, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry, and, if he shall have been previously connected with any ministerial body or church not of the Unitarian faith, a certificate of dismission from such organization.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the Council held in Boston, Oct. 10, 1882, the following times and places of meeting for the year 1883 were agreed upon:—

1. In January, at a time and place to be determined by the Chairman and Secretary.
2. In April or May, at the time and place of meeting of the Western Conference.
3. In September, at the time and place of meeting of the "Ministers' Institute."

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES. — Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., September 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference, in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Woman's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects:—

- 1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.
- 2d. To bring all such organizations into association.
- 3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.
- 4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.
- 5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART II., Members. — This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life-membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III., Officers. — The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee, composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV., Meetings and Reports. — The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work, and pecuniary relations for the period between the National Conferences.

There must be a letter transmitted by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V. Treasurer's Report.—Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the Christian Register, of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information, shall also make a statement of the organization's working with its reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of public work, Sunday schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that bearing to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI. Use of Funds.—This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special objects of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was formally established in 1817, though instruction in Theology had previously been given in connection with Harvard College.

Graduates of some college, or persons who shall give evidence of an education equal to that of college graduates, will be admitted as candidates for the degree of B. D. Persons not having such education may be admitted as special students on giving evidence of a good English training, and passing an examination in some of the Greek and Latin classic authors and in the Greek of the New Testament.

The Theological Library numbers 16,350 volumes. Students have also access to the College Library, which contains 292,000 volumes, and is rich in theological literature. Students may attend without extra charge any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University.

The charges for instruction are $50.00 per year. The price of rooms varies, according to their location and desirableness, from $35.00 to $75.00 per year. It is probable that the price of board at Memorial Hall will not exceed $4.50 a week.

Pecuniary aid is furnished to students who need such help and whose character and scholarship justify it.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

A revised catalogue of 1,152 volumes, issued in May, 1878, contains the titles of all books recommended by the Commission since its organization to that date. A list of books of reference for Sunday-school teachers is appended to the catalogue, and also printed in a separate pamphlet. Supplements to this catalogue will appear as needed.

A list of books for general reading, selected for the use of young persons, and included also as a guide in the formation of small libraries, has been prepared by the Commission, and issued in a separate pamphlet.

These catalogues are for sale at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-School Society, 7 Tremont Place, Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Stephen H. Badger, President and Chairman of the Business Committee; Miss Caroline Soule, Librarian; Miss Harriet W. Hall, Mrs. Theodore Lyman, Miss Charlotte A. Hedge, Miss Abby M. Storer, Chairwomen of Committees on Books.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The Annual Meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday in May, at which time officers are chosen for the year. The other regular meetings are on the second Sunday in October, the second Sunday in December, and the second Sunday in March.

Executive Committee.—Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Edward S. Grew, Treasurer; Charles Faddock, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of Boston.—Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children of the more favored families, for the children of the poor; but it appeals to all for aid in carrying on its work.

Its objects are: first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home, 277 Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1877. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

The annual meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. Kidder, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Craft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent; Rev. Joseph E. Barry, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Barry, and Miss Frances A. Ewer, Missionaries; Mrs. H. M. Hymn and Tune Book

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME, AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised, being a square 16mo, of 517 pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; in Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively. A discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

☞ The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, varied in matter and arrangement, and so prepared that, with the single exception of the service after the death of a member of the school, all can be used in the regular course of the Sundays. At the same time, one or more of the forms will be found adapted to the special occasions of the Christian Year. A collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers is added at the end of the services.

The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces, chosen with the utmost care, to secure pleasing and, at the same time, good music, set to words of pure sentiment, and simple and correct ideas.

The price of the book, strongly and neatly bound in cloth, is $6.00 a dozen.

PREFACE.

IN the preparation of the Year-Book for 1884 this change has been made: The additional list of ministers, which last year succeeded the usual list, has been omitted; experience having shown that it is best to include all names in one list. By reference to the heading (p. 25), it will be seen that this is simply a directory, giving the facts as they actually exist.

The event of the year is unquestionably the raising of over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to erect a new denominational house. That so large a sum has been given so promptly and cheerfully proves that the interest of our laity in the welfare and progress of Liberal Christianity has not abated, but rather increased. Such a building must be, not only a perpetual convenience, but an element of strength in all future missionary work. Meanwhile we have to record that the subscription for general work for the year ending May 1, 1883, was the largest which has been received for ten years; that the additional Meadville endowment has been secured; and that only a few hundreds are needed to complete the subscription for the payment of the debt on the New Orleans Church. The publication of the dollar edition of the works of Rev. Orville Dewey, D.D., with the encouragement and co-operation of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, is one of the important undertakings of the year. Nor can we close without a brief reference to the visit and remarkable utterances of Mr. Mozoomdar, whose words and spirit prove that God has given a witness of the truth to all souls that are earnestly seeking for the light.

The roll of the dead for the year includes the names of Charles T. Brooks, Edward Crowninshield, Warren H. Cudworth, Daniel F. Goddard, John Parkman, Edwin M. Stone, Henry Westcott, John A. Wilson. In that roll we find the names of ripe scholars, searching preachers, faithful pastors, good administrators, noble in character, useful in word and deed.

POSTAL REGULATIONS, 1884.

POSTAGE FOR MATTER IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POSTAGE ON EVERY DESCRIPTION OF CORRESPONDENCE, EXCEPT SECOND-CLASS MATTER, MUST BE PREPAID, AT LEAST PARTLY, BY POSTAGE STAMPS.

FIRST-CLASS MATTER. — Letters. The postage on letters to all parts of the United States is 2 cts. for each half oz. or fraction thereof. Articles sealed or closed against inspection are charged as letters. Postal Cards, with only the address written on the face, 1 ct. Drop or Local Letters to be delivered in the office where mailed, 2 cts.; a half oz. at offices where free delivery by carrier is established; at other offices, 1 ct. Prepaid letters, not delivered at the first office named, will be reforwarded to the place where the owner is, if known, or returned to the writer, if indelivered with that request, free. Letters to be mailed from one office to another will not be sent unless prepaid at least 2 cts.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER. Newspapers and Periodicals to regular subscribers. No limitation of weight. When mailed from a known office of publication or news agency, and issued regularly not less than four times a year, the postage for each pound or fraction is 2 cts.; the matter in all cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER. On Transient Newspapers and Magazines, Books, Pamphlets, and occasional publications, circulars, engravings, photographs, post-cards, booklets, proof-sheets, manuscript copy if accompanied with proof, valentines, and sheet-music, the postage on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of books, which may weigh over 4 lbs.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER. — Letter envelopes, whether printed or plain; cards, sample-early, bill-heads, letter-head, plain, ornamental, or perforated paper, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and other articles of merchandise which are not in any way liable to injure the contents of the mail-chest, or the person of any one engaged in the postal service, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The name of the sender of any article, or the address, may be written in the package or on its outside, with the word "from" above or preceding the same; or, briefly, the number and names of the articles enclosed and addresses, may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender; but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION. All mail matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $100 on one order, are issued in the principal offices on payment of the following fees. Orders not exceeding $10, — 8 cts.; over $10, and not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, — 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40, — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts.; over $50, and not exceeding $60, — 30 cts.; over $60, and not exceeding $70, — 35 cts.; over $70, and not exceeding $80, — 40 cts.; over $80, and not exceeding $100, — 45 cts. There are over 6,000 money-order offices.

POSTAL NOTES. — All money-order offices issue postal notes for from 1 ct. to $4.99 inclusive, payable in any office named on their face, or where issued, within 3 months from the last day of the month of issue, — for which a fee of 3 cts. is charged besides the amount of the note.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The rate given is for one half oz. or under. A star (*) against the rate means that prepayment is optional, but on registered matter the postage must be prepaid in full.

It is forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries pieces of coin, jewelry of any kind, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates of postage unless they are actually trade-samples, and also are enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination of the contents.

THE POSTAL UNION. — Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, letters, 2 cts. All kinds of printed matter the same as in the United States. Articles of merchandise are expressly excluded from the mails to Canada. To the other portions of the Postal Union, comprising all European Countries, and Azores, West Africa, Bermudas, Bahamas, Brazil, Buenos Ayres, Canary Islands, Cape De Verdes, Chili, Central America, China, Ecuador, Egypt, Guiana, India, Java, Japan, Mauritius, Madeiras, Mexico, Miquelon, New Caledonia, Newfoundland, New South Wales, New Zealand, Paraguay, Persia, Peru, Philippine Islands, Queensland, Seychelles, Singapore, St. Pierre, Sandwich Islands, Tahiti, Turkey in Asia, U. LIST OF MINISTERS,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all persons who have charge of Unitarian societies in the United States and Canada, whether as pastors, or stated supplies, of all ministers, now living, not in relationship with some other denomination, who have been pastors of such societies and have not withdrawn from the profession, and of ordained Ministers from other denominations, who have been approved by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference. In some instances the person in charge of a society has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination.

Ministers not in charge of a society, either as pastor or stated supply, have their names preceded by †. A large proportion of these have occupation outside the ministry, or else, on account of age or for other reasons, do not desire a settlement.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st. To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d. To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d. To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th. To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th. To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient,—such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors is divided into Standing Committees, as follows, the Secretary being ex officio Chairman, and the Assistant Secretary a member of each Committee, but not entitled to vote:—

Finance.—Messrs. Gaffield, Burrage, Bigelow, James, and Firth.

Publication.—Messrs. De Normandie, Batchelor, Hornbrooke, Miss Channing, and Mrs. Wells.

New England States.—Messrs. Stewart, Burrage, James, Chaffin, and Harding.

Middle and Southern States.—Messrs. Gaffield, Whitney, Brown, Putnam, and Calder.

Western States and Pacific Coast.—Messrs. Jones, Horton, Batchelor, Firth, and Miss Channing.

Foreign Missions.—Messrs. Whitney, Bigelow, Harding, Hornbrooke and Mrs. Wells.

Theological Education.—Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Horton, and Chaffin.

Executive Committee.—Messrs. Bigelow, Gifford, Brown, Burrage, De Normandie, Batchelor, and Calder.

* The Rooms of the Association are at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M.,—that is, when not away from the city at Conferences, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.—The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and co-operate with it for that purpose.

ART. II.—An annual subscription of one dollar shall constitute a person a member so long as such subscription be paid; and a subscription of thirty dollars shall constitute a person a member for life.

ART. III.—The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one third shall be chosen annually. But, at the Annual Meeting of 1877, the full number of eighteen shall be chosen,—six for one year, six for two years, and six for three years.

ART. IV.—This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. V.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures, as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VI.—The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held on the Tuesday before the last Wednesday in May, at such time and place in the city of Boston as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given, by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. VII.—Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The by-laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $30 shall constitute a person a member for life," and, through such payment, the following named 1511 persons now occupy that position; of whom 78 (those whose names are in Italics) have been added during the year 1883.

It will be noticed that many of the settled clergymen of the denomination are not members. It is to be hoped that during the coming year, through the generosity of parishioners, the names of many such ministers will be added to the list; and also a much larger number of lay members than in any previous year.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

CONFERENCES.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864, at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the city of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880; the tenth, in Saratoga, Sept. 19, 20, 21, and 22, 1882.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God, and the building up of the kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retired at each election, and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI. — The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the widest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

ART. X. — While we believe that the Preamble and Articles of our Constitution fairly represent the opinions of the majority of our churches, yet we wish distinctly to put on record our declaration that they are no authoritative test of Unitarianism, and are not intended to exclude from our fellowship any who, while differing from us in belief, are in general sympathy with our purposes and practical aims.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches: inviting correspondence and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday-school, charities, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, &c.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Meadville, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry, and, if he shall have been previously connected with any ministerial body or church not of the Unitarian faith, a certificate of dismission from such organization.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the Council held in Boston, Oct. 10, 1882, the following times and places of meeting for the year 1884 were agreed upon:—

1. In January, at a time and place to be determined by the Chairman and Secretary.
2. In May, at Boston, during Anniversary Week.
3. In September, at the time and place of meeting of the National Conference.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches. — Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., September 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference, in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Woman's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects: —

- 1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.
- 2d. To bring all such organizations into association.
- 3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.
- 4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.
- 5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II., Members. — This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life-membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III., Officers. — The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee, composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV., Meetings and Reports. — The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work, and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V., Treasurer's Reports. — Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI., Use of Funds. — This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

Women's Western Unitarian Conference. — Organized at St. Louis, Mo., May 4, 1881. Incorporated May 8, 1882. Office, 40 Madison St., Chicago, Ill.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETIES.

THE UNITARIAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETY.

Instituted in 1827; Reorganized in 1854.

The object of this Society, as expressed in its Constitution, is "to promote the cause of Sunday-schools, wherever the Providence of God may open a way, in whatever manner he may direct, and by whatever means he may put into its hands."

The "Dayspring," published by this Society, is issued monthly, and has a circulation of 12,000 copies. The Society also publishes a large number of text-books for use in our Sunday-schools. The Sunday-School Lessons for 1883-1884 consist of the successive chapters of a new Life of Jesus for children, by Rev. Howard N. Brown. They are issued in monthly numbers (four chapters in each number), with illustrations, references, and questions.

The payment of fifty cents annually constitutes a person a member of this Society, so long as it is paid; and a subscription of ten dollars at any one time a member for life.

The Society holds a special meeting in Boston in Anniversary Week, and has its Annual Meeting, for business, election of officers, and discussion of Sunday-School work, on the third Tuesday of October.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was formally established in 1817, though instruction in Theology had previously been given in connection with Harvard College.

Graduates of some college, or persons who shall give evidence of an education equal to that of college graduates, will be admitted as candidates for the degree of B. D. Persons not having such education may be admitted as special students on giving evidence of a good English training, and passing an examination in some of the Greek and Latin classic authors and in the Greek of the New Testament.

The Theological Library numbers 16,350 volumes. Students have also access to the College Library, which contains 210,000 volumes, and is rich in theological literature. Students may attend without extra charge any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University.

The charges for instruction are $50.00 per year. The price of rooms varies, according to their location and desirableness, from $35.00 to $75.00 per year. It is probable that the price of board at Memorial Hall will not exceed $4.50 a week.

Pecuniary aid is furnished to students who need such help and whose character and scholarship justify it.

Lothrop, D.D., Boston, President; Rev. Henry H. Barber, Somerville, Secretary; Henry G. Denny, Boston, Treasurer.

Society for the Relief of Aged and Destitute Clergymen, BOSTON, MASS. — Formed 1848; incorporated 1850.

This Society was organized to afford pecuniary relief to aged and destitute Unitarian clergymen. The interest of the invested fund is distributed semi-annually, in May and November, by the Executive Committee, to such persons as are qualified, according to the requirements of the Constitution, to receive aid, as follows: "All Unitarian clergymen, who have been ordained as pastors or evangelists, and who have reached the age of fifty-five years, who have retained an unspotted moral character, and who have been reduced to necessitous circumstances, may be placed on its list of beneficiaries. The claims of each applicant shall be set forth in writing by two of his clerical brethren who are well acquainted with his condition and circumstances." The names of beneficiaries are never published.

Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D.D., President; Rev. Henry W. Foote, Secretary; Joseph B. Moors, Treasurer.

"Christian Register" Association.

Arthur T. Lyman, President; Miss Amy S. Willard, Treasurer; Rev. Solon W. Bush, Clerk.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

A revised catalogue of 1,452 volumes, issued in May, 1878, contains the titles of all books recommended by the Commission from its organization to that date. A list of books of reference for Sunday-school teachers is appended to this catalogue, and also printed in a separate pamphlet. The lists of the next five years are collected in a second catalogue of 452 titles, issued in 1883. Supplements are printed annually.

A list of books for general reading, adapted to the use of young persons, and intended also as a guide in the formation of small libraries, was prepared by the Commission, and issued in a separate pamphlet in 1871.

These catalogues are for sale at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-School Society, 7 Tremont Place, Boston, Mass.

The officers of the Commission are :—

Miss Martha H. Brooks, President; Mrs. Francis H. Lee, Secretary; Miss Caroline G. Soule, Librarian.

Benevolent Fraternity of Churches of Boston. — Organized 1834; incorporated 1839.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The Annual Meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday in May, at which time officers are chosen for the year. The other regular meetings are on the second Sunday in October, the second Sunday in December, and the second Sunday in March.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Edward S. Grew, Treasurer; Charles Faulkner, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of Boston. — Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children of the more favored families, for the children of the poor; but it appeals to all for aid in carrying on its work.

Its objects are: first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home, 277 Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1867. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

The annual meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. Kidder, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Cruft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent; Rev. Joseph E. Barry, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Barry, and Miss Frances A. Ewer, Missionaries; Mrs. Harriet M. Peabody, Matron.

Industrial School for Girls, Boston (Dorchester). — Organized November, 1853; incorporated 1854.

This Institution is for training to good conduct and self-support destitute and neglected girls, also girls who cannot be taken care of at home, but whose relatives or friends can afford to pay a small sum for board. The time they are kept in the school is determined by the needs and circumstances of each child. It is supported by donations and subscriptions, and the income of property already received.

Miss Liza S. Parkman, 50 Chestnut Street, President; William S. Hall, Treasurer; Mrs. William W. Vaughan, 3 Brammer Street, Assistant Treasurer; Miss Mary L. Hall, Dorchester, Secretary; Miss Frances R. Morse, 12 Marlboro Street, Miss Annette P. Rogers, 5 Joy Street, and Miss Emily W. Howard, Cedar Street, Roxbury, Admission Committee.

The Temporary Home for the Destitute, Boston.—Established 1847; incorporated 1852.

This institution, at 1 Pine Place, Boston, is intended as a temporary home for children of all ages. It is supported by subscriptions, donations, and income of property derived from donations.

John Ayres, President; John D. Williams, Treasurer; S. Parkman Blake, Jr., Clerk; Mrs. Anne L. Gwynne, Matron.

Home for Aged Colored Women, No. 27 Myrtle Street, Boston.—Founded Jan. 18, 1860.

The home can accommodate about twenty inmates. Present number twenty. The house is owned by the corporation. The expenses are met by annual subscriptions and gifts.

Joseph C. A. Hill, Concord, President; Rev. James De Normandie, Boston (Roxbury), Mass., Vice-President; Herbert B. Dow, Andover, Clerk; Lewis Downing, Jr., Concord, Treasurer.

The Channing Club of Chicago.—Organized April, 1881. Membership open to the members and ministers of the Unitarian congregations of Chicago and vicinity. Meetings held monthly, except during the summer, the members dining together and afterwards discussing some subject of interest to our churches. The Club provides and manages a room at 135 Wabash Avenue, which is called the "Channing Club Room," and is the Unitarian Head-quarters in Chicago.

The President is chosen for each meeting by the Committee of Managers, Byron P. Moulton, James M. Wanzer, Alexander M. Thomson, Ephraim Ingals, M.D., John Wilkinson, Secretary and Treasurer, Eric Winters, 15 Howland Block, Chicago.

The Unitarian Club, Boston, Mass. — Organized Jan. 26, 1882. The membership is limited to two hundred and fifty Unitarian laymen. The objects of the Club are: "To encourage friendly relations among laymen of the Unitarian faith, to secure concert of action, and to promote the general interests of the denomination." It annually holds seven monthly meetings, — on the second Wednesday of October, November, December, January, February, March, and April, at the Hotel Vendome, at which dinner is served, and some religious, philanthropic, or denominational subject discussed. The annual meeting occurs on the second Wednesday of January.

Hon. John D. Long, President; Henry P. Kibler and Hon. Robert M. Morse, Jr., Vice-Presidents; Francis H. Brown, M. D., Treasurer (42 Congress Street); Henry H. Edes, Secretary (87 Milk Street, Room 16); Weston Lewis, William H. Baldwin, and Oscar H. Sampson, Executive Committee, who together constitute the COUNCIL, for the government and control of the Club.

ORGANIZATIONS NOT DENOMINATIONAL.

Boston Young Men's Christian Union — Organized in 1851: incorporated in 1852.

The objects of this organization are: 1st, to furnish to the young men of Boston and vicinity a place of pleasant resort, where they will meet agreeable companions, and where the influences will be beneficial and elevating; 2d, To provide them with opportunities for self-improvement and healthful recreation, at little or no expense; 3d, To give them opportunities to do good, by engaging in charitable and benevolent work.

The rooms, at 18 Boylston Street, are open every day, Sundays included, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Membership for one year, one dollar; subscription membership, five dollars a year; for life, twenty-five dollars. All young men residing in Boston and the vicinity are cordially invited to become members of the Society.

Hymn and Tune Book,

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME,
AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL
WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised; being a square 16mo, of 517
pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune
Book, $1.25; in Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively. A discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

Hymn, Tune, and Service Book,
FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, varied in matter and arrangement, and so prepared that, with the single exception of the service after the death of a member of the school, all can be used in the regular course of the Sundays. At the same time, one or more of the forms will be found adapted to the special occasions of the Christian Year. A collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers is added at the end of the services.

The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces, chosen with the utmost care, to secure pleasing and, at the same time, good music, set to words of pure sentiment, and simple and correct ideas.

The price of the book, strongly and neatly bound in cloth, is $6.00 a dozen.

PREFACE.

THE same principles and methods have governed the preparation of the Year-Book for 1885, which gave shape to that of 1884. It proposes to furnish the facts and history of our denominational life just as they exist.

Two events of marked importance have taken place during the past year, namely, the stimulating and united meeting of the National Conference, and that change of the By-Laws of the American Unitarian Association by which, hereafter, parishes will be directly represented by delegates in all meetings of the Association. We chronicle the latter, with the hope that our Societies will appoint such delegates, and that they will appoint them from the list of their best men and women. To our dollar editions of Channing and Dewey, we, this year, add similar editions of the sermons of Rev. James Walker, D.D., and of Rev. William C. Gannett's admirable life of his father. The corner-stone of the new Unitarian Building has already been laid; and before the year 1885 closes, our various religious organizations will be able, with convenient and ample accommodations, more efficiently to do their work.

We have to lament the loss from the ranks of our ministry of Ira Bailey, Charles F. Barnard, James A. Kendall, Samuel D. Robbins, Alphonso M. Weeks, John B. Wight.

THE NEW STANDARDS OF TIME.

The times given in this Year-Book are the local astronomical mean times (regulated by the position of the sun with regard to the meridian of each place), such as they were before the adoption of the new railroad standards of time.

Four standard meridians have been adopted for the United States, and one for the Dominion of Canada: Intercolonial, 60° west from Greenwich, England; Eastern, 75°; Central, 90°; Mountain, 105°; Pacific, 120°.

The Eastern standard meridian, for the eastern part of the United States, passes about two thirds of a minute of time east of Philadelphia, nearly four minutes of time west of New York City, and very nearly through Ogdensburg, N. Y.

The Central standard meridian passes through New Orleans, La. St. Louis, Mo., is about one minute in time west of it, and Chicago about ten and a half minutes of time east of it.

The Mountain meridian passes through the Rocky Mountains, very near Pike's Peak, Col.

The Pacific standard meridian is near the Pacific coast, San Francisco being about nine and a half minutes of time west of it.

For the several standard meridians themselves the times of the Year-Book will be correct, because for those standards no departure is made from the old method of regulating time by the sun.

But for a place east of either of these standard meridians, and within 7½° of it, one minute of time must be subtracted from the Year-Book times for every quarter of a degree of longitude that the place is distant from that standard meridian; or four minutes of time for each degree.

For a place west of any standard meridian, and within 7½° of it, add one minute of time for each quarter of a degree, or four minutes of time for each degree, of distance from that standard to the Year-Book times.

Any ordinary school map of the United States will give the distances in longitude of places from the standard meridians with sufficient accuracy for applying these rules.

The number and names of the articles enclosed and addresses, may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender; but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION. — All mail matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $100 on one order, are issued in the principal offices, on payment of the following fees: Orders not exceeding $10, — 8 cts.; over $10, and not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, — 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40, — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts.; over $50, and not exceeding $60, — 30 cts.; over $60, and not exceeding $70, — 35 cts.; over $70, and not exceeding $80, — 40 cts.; over $80, and not exceeding $100, — 45 cts. There are over 6,000 money-order offices.

POSTAL NOTES. — All money-order offices issue postal notes for from 1 ct. to $4.99 inclusive, payable to the bearer in any office named on their face, or where issued, within 3 months from the last day of the month of issue, — for which a fee of 3 cts. is charged besides the amount of the note.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The rate given is for one half oz. or under. A star (*) against the rate means that prepayment is optional, but on registered matter the postage must be prepaid in full.

It is forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries pieces of coin, jewelry of any kind, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates of postage unless they are actually trade-samples, and also are enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination of the contents. Presents are subject to letter rates of postage, unless forming printed matter.

THE POSTAL UNION. — Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, also Mexico, letters,

List of Societies,

WITH THEIR MINISTERS.

With the name of each Society is given that of the person who has charge of it. In a few instances the person so named has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

List of Ministers,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all persons who have charge of Unitarian societies in the United States and Canada, whether as pastors or stated supplies, of all ministers, now living, not in fellowship with some other denomination, who have been pastors of such societies and have not withdrawn from the profession, and of ordained Ministers from other denominations, who have been approved by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference. In some instances the person in charge of a society has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

Ministers not in charge of a society, either as pastor or stated supply, have their names preceded by †. A large proportion of these have occupation outside the ministry, or else, on account of age or for other reasons, do not desire a settlement.

Missionary Associations.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st, To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d, To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d, To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th, To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th, To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient,—such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors is divided into Standing Committees, as follows, the Secretary being ex officio Chairman, and the Assistant Secretary a member of each Committee, but not entitled to vote:—

Finance.—Messrs. Gaffield, Burrage, James, Firth, and Whitney.

Publication.—Messrs. De Normandie, Hornbrooke, Chaffin, Miss Channing, and Mrs. Wells.

New England States.—Messrs. Stewart, Burrage, James, Chaffin, and Harding.

Middle and Southern States.—Messrs. Gaffield, Brown, Putnam, Skinner, and Calder.

Western States and Pacific Coast.—Messrs. Horton, Batchelor, Firth, Sunderland, and Miss Channing.

Foreign Missions.—Messrs. Whitney, Harding, Hornbrooke, Skinner, and Mrs. Wells.

Theological Education.—Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Horton, and Chaffin.

Executive Committee.—Messrs. Gaffield, Brown, Burrage, De Normandie, Batchelor, Calder, and Whitney.

 The Rooms of the Association are at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M.,—that is, when not away from the city at Conferences, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I. — The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and co-operate with it for that purpose.

ART. II. — A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this Association for life.

ART. III. — The churches contributing to the funds of this Association shall be entitled to representation under the following conditions, namely: —

Any church or missionary association, of at least two years' standing, shall, upon sending a contribution for missionary uses to the Treasurer of the Association for two successive years, be entitled to representation at all business meetings of the Association, by the persons of its minister or president, and two additional lay delegates; provided that such contributions shall be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association, on or before May 1, to entitle a church to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Declarant members shall have the right to vote at all meetings of the Association.

ART. IV. — The Board of Directors may by a unanimous vote at a regular meeting, two-thirds of their number being present, elect Honorary Members of this Association, who shall have the same rights and privileges as other members. Such elections shall be by ballot, and nominations shall lie over at least one month.

ART. V. — The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one-third shall be chosen annually.

ART. VI. — This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. VII. — It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VIII. — The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given, by circular to the churches, and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. IX. — Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The by-laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $50 shall constitute a person a member for life," and the following named 1552 persons now occupy that position: of whom 83 (those whose names are in Italics) have been added during the year 1884.

It will be noticed that many of the settled clergymen of the denomination are not members. It is to be hoped that during the coming year, through the generosity of parishioners, the names of many such ministers will be added to the list.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

Conferences.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864; at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the city of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880; the tenth, in Saratoga, Sept. 19, 20, 21, and 22, 1882; the eleventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26, 1884.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God, and the building up of the kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retired at each election, and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI. — The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the wisest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

ART. X. — While we believe that the Preamble and Articles of our Constitution fairly represent the opinions of the majority of our churches, yet we wish distinctly to put on record our declaration that they are no authoritative test of Unitarianism, and are not intended to exclude from our fellowship any who, while differing from us in belief, are in general sympathy with our purposes and practical aims.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday-school, charities, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, etc.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Meadville, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

The meetings of the Council, during the year 1885, will probably be as follows :—

1. In January, at Boston.

2. In May, at Chicago.

3. In September, at the time and place of meeting of the Ministers' Institute.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other Christian CHURCHES. — Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of Liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference, in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Woman's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects:—

1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.

2d. To bring all such organizations into association.

3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.

4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.

5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II. Members. — This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life-membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the faith that is in us."

ART. III. Officers. — The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee, composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV. Meetings and Reports. — The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work, and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V. Treasurer's Reports. — Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above-stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI. Use of Funds. — This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

Women's Western Unitarian Conference. — Organized at St. Louis, Mo., May 4, 1881. Incorporated May 8, 1882. Office, 135 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

This is a missionary body, having for its object to combine the Unitarian and other Liberal religious women of the West into an efficient union for the work of spreading and strengthening their Liberal religious faith. The chief methods of accomplishing this work, at present, are: —

I. To bring all the different ladies' organizations into correspondence and sympathy through the labors of a Secretary in the central office in Chicago, and through reports made at the annual meetings of the Conference.

II. To interest the women of the churches as far as possible to undertake definite courses of study in Unitarian history, biography, and literature.

III. To organize as many centres as possible, for the distribution of Unitarian literature through the post-office, in the form of tracts and papers given, and books loaned.

OFFICERS.

Sunday-School Societies.

THE UNITARIAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETY.

Instituted 1827 ; Reorganized 1854.

The object of this Society, as expressed in its Constitution, is "to promote moral and religious education in Sunday-schools."

The Society publishes at a low price a large number of valuable text-books for Sunday-schools. It issues a monthly paper, the "Dayspring," which has a circulation of 12,000 copies. It has lately published a new Sunday-school Service Book and Hymnal, compiled by its Secretary, Rev. Henry G. Spaulding. Its field of missionary activity is rapidly enlarging, and it solicits a wider co-operation on the part of the Unitarian churches of America.

The payment of fifty cents annually constitutes a person a member of this Society, so long as it is paid; and a subscription of ten dollars at any one time a member for life.

The Society holds a special meeting in Boston in Anniversary Week, and has its Annual Meeting, for business, election of officers, and discussion of Sunday-school work, in October.

Theological Schools.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was formally established in 1817, though instruction in Theology had previously been given in connection with Harvard College.

Graduates of some college, or persons who shall give evidence of an education equal to that of college graduates, will be admitted as candidates for the degree of B.D. Persons not having such education may be admitted as special students on giving evidence of a good English training, and passing an examination in some of the Greek and Latin classic authors and in the Greek of the New Testament.

The Theological Library numbers 16,350 volumes. Students have also access to the College Library, which contains 210,000 volumes, and is rich in theological literature.

Students may attend without extra charge any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University.

The charges for instruction are $50.00 per year. The price of rooms varies, according to their location and desirableness, from $35.00 to $75.00 per year. It is probable that the price of board at Memorial Hall will not exceed $4.50 a week.

Pecuniary aid is furnished to students who need such help and whose character and scholarship justify it.

Society for the Relief of Aged and Destitute Clergymen, Boston, Mass. — Formed 1848; incorporated 1850.

This Society was organized to afford pecuniary relief to aged and destitute Unitarian clergymen. The interest of the invested fund is distributed semi-annually, in May and November, by the Executive Committee, to such persons as are qualified, according to the requirements of the Constitution, to receive aid, as follows: "All Unitarian clergymen, who have been ordained as pastors or evangelists, and who have reached the age of fifty-five years, who have retained an unspotted moral character, and who have been reduced to necessitous circumstances, may be placed on its list of beneficiaries. The claims of each applicant shall be set forth in writing by two of his clerical brethren who are well acquainted with his condition and circumstances." The names of beneficiaries are never published.

Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D.D., LL.D., President; Rev. Henry W. Foote, Secretary; Joseph B. Moors, Treasurer.

"Christian Register" Association.

This Association was organized for the purpose of publishing the "Christian Register." Office at 141 Franklin Street, Boston.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

A revised catalogue of 1,452 volumes, issued in May, 1878, contains the titles of all books recommended by the Commission from its organization to that date. A list of books of reference for Sunday-school teachers is appended to this catalogue, and also printed in a separate pamphlet. The lists of the next five years are collected in a second catalogue of 452 titles, issued in 1883. Supplements are printed annually.

A list of books for general reading, adapted to the use of young persons, and intended also as a guide in the formation of small libraries, was prepared by the Commission, and issued in a separate pamphlet in 1871.

These catalogues are for sale at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-School Society, 7 Tremont Place, Boston, Mass.

The officers of the Commission are:—

Miss Martha H. Brooks, President; Mrs. Francis H. Lee, Secretary; Miss Caroline G. Soule, Librarian.

Benevolent Fraternity of Churches of Boston.—Organized 1834; incorporated 1839.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The Annual Meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday in May, at which time officers are chosen for the year. The other regular meetings are on the second Sunday in October, the second Sunday in December, and the second Sunday in March.

Executive Committee.—Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Edward S. Grew, Treasurer; Charles Faulkner, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of BOSTON.—Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children of the more favored families, for the children of the poor; but it appeals to all for aid in carrying on its work.

Its objects are: first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home, 277 Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1867. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

The Annual Meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. Kidder, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Hymn and Tune Book,

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME, AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised; being a square 16mo, of 517 pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; with a discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen. In Turkey morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively, with a discount of ten per cent to societies and clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

Hymn, Tune, and Service Book,

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS. Square 16mo, 220 pp. $6.00 a dozen; single copies, 60 cts.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, to which is added a collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers. The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces.

THE

UNITARIAN

WITH CALENDAR ADAPTED FOR USE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

BOSTON:

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

PREFACE.

THE Year-Book for 1886 contains a new and valuable feature, namely, a complete list of the Unitarian ministers and churches in Great Britain, which has been courteously furnished by Mr. Ierson, Secretary of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Attention is also called to the list of churches, which acquired the right to be represented by delegates in all meetings of the Association in the year 1885-6. It is hoped that the number, another year, will be greatly increased. During the year the Church Building Loan Fund has been created, and the reader will find, in the appropriate place, who are Trustees, and by what rules the use of the Fund is regulated. A new Conference under happy auspices has been organized on the Pacific Coast. With great pleasure we state, that the dollar edition of Channing has been made complete by the addition of "The Perfect Life"; and that Rev. James Freeman Clarke, D.D., has enabled us to add to the number of such editions by editing a volume of selections from the writings of Theodore Parker.

During the year eleven ministers have been taken from us by death, William Barry, James H. Collins, Hiram C. Duganne, Rufus Ellis, Jacob G. Forman, Edwin J. Gerry, John E. Maude, William Mountford, Oliver Stearns, Rufus P. Stebbins, George A. Williams. As we read these names they bring back to memory men whose lives have been full of faithful and successful Christian service. To these names we can well add that of William H. Channing, whose affection for his native land and for his fellow-believers in it, never cooled, however distant his later home and field of labor might be.

THE NEW STANDARDS OF TIME.

The times given in this Year-Book, unless designated as in accordance with the new railroad standards of time, are the local astronomical mean times (regulated by the position of the sun with regard to the meridian of each place) such as they were before the adoption of the new railroad standards. The times for the risings and settings of the heavenly bodies cannot be given in the railroad standards of time, because a change of those times, to the amount of one minute, would be necessary for every quarter of a degree of difference of longitude from the standard meridians. This would involve something like two hundred and forty different statements, each day, for the rising or setting of each heavenly body.

Four standard meridians have been adopted for the United States and one for the Dominion of Canada. Intercolonial, 60° west from Greenwich, Eng.; Eastern, 75°; Central, 90°; Mountain, 105°; Pacific, 120°.

The Eastern standard meridian, for the eastern part of the United States, passes about $\frac{2}{3}$ of a minute of time east of Philadelphia, nearly four minutes of time west of New York City, and very nearly through Ogdensburgh, N. Y.

The Central standard meridian passes through New Orleans, La. St. Louis, Mo., is about one minute in time west of it and Chicago about $1\frac{1}{2}$ minutes of time east of it.

The Mountain meridian passes through the Rocky Mountains very near Pike's Peak, Col.

The Pacific standard meridian is near the Pacific coast, San Francisco being about $9\frac{1}{2}$ minutes of time west of it.

For these several standard meridians themselves the times of the Year-Book will be correct, because for those standards no departure is made from the old method of regulating time by the sun.

For any place east of any of these standard meridians, and within $7\frac{1}{2}$ ° of it, the times of the rising or setting of any heavenly body, expressed in standard time, may be derived from those given in the Year-Book by subtracting from the Year-Book times one minute of time for every quarter of a degree of longitude that the place is distant from that standard meridian; or four minutes of time for each degree.

For a place west of any standard meridian, and within $7\frac{1}{2}$ ° of it, add to the Year-Book times one minute of time for each quarter of a degree, or four minutes of time for each degree of distance from that standard.

The Year-Book time should be selected from the column of a place nearest in latitude to that for which the standard time of rising or setting is wanted.

Any ordinary school-map of the United States will give the distances in longitude of places from the standard meridians with sufficient accuracy for applying these rules.

POSTAL REGULATIONS, 1886.

POSTAGE FOR MATTER IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POSTAGE ON EVERY DESCRIPTION OF CORRESPONDENCE, EXCEPT PERIODICALS REGULARLY ISSUED TO SUBSCRIBERS, MUST BE PREPAID, AT LEAST PARTIALLY, BY POSTAGE STAMPS.

FIRST-CLASS MATTER.—Letters. The postage on letters forwarded between any post-offices in the United States is 2 cts for each ounce or fraction thereof. Articles sealed or closed against inspection, or containing written matter besides the address, are charged as letters. Drop or Local Letters (to be delivered in the office where mailed,) 2 cts. an ounce, at offices where free delivery by carrier is established; at other offices, 1 ct. Prepaid letters, not delivered at the first office named, will be reforwarded to the place where the party addressed is, if known, or returned to the writer, if indorsed with that request, free. Letters to be mailed from one office to another will not be sent unless prepaid at least 2 cts. Postal Cards, with only the address written on the face, 1 ct. Special-delivery Letters. In addition to the regular postage, one full rate of which at least must be prepaid, 10 cts. is charged for a special stamp, which is not good for any other purpose, which ensures the delivery of a letter without delay by special messenger, anywhere within the carrier limits of a free-delivery office, and within one mile of the post-office at all other places where the population is over 4000.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER.—Newspapers and Periodicals to regular subscribers. (No limitation of weight.)—When mailed from a known office of publication or newsagency, and issued regularly, and not addressed to letter-carrier offices (excepting weeklies), the postage for each pound or fraction is 1 ct.; the matter in all cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing. When for letter-carrier offices (excepting weeklies), for 2 oz. or less, 1 ct.; over 2 oz., 2 cts. Weeklies in all cases, for each pound or fraction, 1 ct.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER.—On Transient Newspapers and Magazines, regularly issued, the postage is 1 ct. for every 4 oz. or fraction; on Books (Printed), Pamphlets, and occasional publications, circulars, engravings, photographs, posters, blanks, proof-sheets, manuscript copy if accompanied with proof, valentines, and sheet-music, the postage on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of printed books, which may weigh over 4 lbs.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.—Merchandise. Letter envelopes, cards, sample cards, bill-heads, letter heads, plain, ornamental, or perforated paper, blank books, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and other articles of merchandise which are not in any way liable to injure the contents of the mail bag, or any person, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The number and names of the articles enclosed, and addresses, may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender; but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION.—All mail matter may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS, for any amount not exceeding $100 on one order, are issued in the principal offices on payment of the following fees: Orders not exceeding $10, — 8 cts.; over $10, and not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $30, — 15 cts.; over $30, and not exceeding $40, — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts.; over $50, and not exceeding $60, — 30 cts.; over $60, and not exceeding $70, — 35 cts.; over $70, and not exceeding $80, — 40 cts.; over $80, and not exceeding $100, — 45 cts.

POSTAL NOTES.—All money-order offices issue postal notes for from 1 ct. to $4.99 inclusive, payable to the bearer in any office named on their face, or where issued, within 3 months from the last day of the month of issue, — for which a fee of 3 cts. is charged besides the amount of the note.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

A star (*) against the rate means that prepayment is optional, but on registered matter the postage must be prepaid in full.

It is forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries coin, jewelry, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates unless they are actually trade-samples, and also enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination. Presents are subject to letter rates, unless forming printed matter, also electrotypes and cuts for advertising purposes.

THE POSTAL UNION.—Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, letters,

LIST OF SOCIETIES,

WITH THEIR MINISTERS.

With the name of each Society is given that of the person who has charge of it. In a few instances the person so named has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

LIST OF MINISTERS,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all persons who have charge of Unitarian societies in the United States and Canada, whether as pastors or stated supplies, of all ministers, now living, not in fellowship with some other denomination who have been pastors of such societies and have not withdrawn from the profession, and of ordained Ministers from other denominations, who have been approved by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference. In some instances the person in charge of a society has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

Ministers not in charge of a society, either as pastor or stated supply, have their names preceded by t. A large proportion of these have occupation outside the ministry, or else, on account of age or for other reasons, do not desire a settlement.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st, To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d, To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d, To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th, To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th, To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, — such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

Theological Education. — Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Horton, and Wendt.

Executive Committee. — Messrs. Gasfield, Brown, Burrage, De Normandie, Calder, Whitney, and Putnam.

••• The Rooms of the Association will continue to be (until the completion, early in the spring, of the new Unitarian Building, at 25 Beacon Street, at 7 Tremont Place, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M.;—that is, when not away from the city at Conferences, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

BY LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I. — The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and cooperate with it for that purpose.

ART. II. — A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this Association for life.

ART. III. — The churches contributing to the funds of this Association shall be entitled to representation under the following conditions, namely:—

Any church or missionary association, of at least two years' standing, shall, upon sending a contribution for missionary uses to the Treasurer of the Association for two successive years, be entitled to representation at all business meetings of the Association, by the persons of its minister or president, and two additional lay delegates; provided that such contributions shall be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before May 1, to entitle a church to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Delegate members shall have the right to vote at all meetings of the Association.

ART. IV. — The Board of Directors may by a unanimous vote at a regular meeting, two thirds of their number being present, elect Honorary Members of this Association, who shall have the same rights and privileges as other members. Such elections shall be by ballot, and nominations shall lie over at least one month.

ART. V. — The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one third shall be chosen annually.

ART. VI. — This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. VII. — It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VIII. — The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given by circular to the churches, and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. IX. — Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

DELEGATE SOCIETIES.

The following Societies, having complied with the conditions contained in Article III. of the By-Laws, became thus entitled to representation at the Annual Meeting of 1885, and any subsequent meetings which might be held previous to the next Annual Meeting.

Church Building Loan Fund.

Organized Jan. 18, 1885.

This Fund, the object of which is to aid Unitarian Societies in the erection of churches, was created by the American Unitarian Association, with the co-operation and assistance of the National Conference. The Trustees of the Fund are elected by the Directors of the Association; but in the transaction of business, the Trustees are an entirely independent board.

All business communications should be addressed to the Secretary, at Brookline, Mass.

TRUSTEES.

Henry P. Kidder, Boston, Mass.	President	Rev. Grindall Reynolds, Concord, Mass.
Rev. Howard N. Brown, Brookline, Mass.		Henry W. Putnam, Boston, Mass.
Charles H. Burrage, Boston, Mass.	Secretary.	J. Harsen Rhoades, New York, N.Y.
Rev. Brooke Herford, Boston, Mass.	Treasurer.	Rev. Jabez T. Sunderland, Chicago, Ill.
		Rev. George A. Truier, Cincinnati, Ohio

Standing Committee.

Rev. Brooke Herford, Rev. Grindall Reynolds, Rev. Howard N. Brown.

RULES.

1. The Officers of this Board shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Standing Committee of three, to receive and report applications for aid, these officers to be chosen annually.

2. The Board shall meet annually in the month of May, during Anniversary Week, and at other times, according to its own votes or the call of its officers.

3. No money from the fund held by this Board shall be bestowed as a gift, and all loans from the same shall be made on adequate security.

4. No money shall be loaned except by consent of seven of the nine Trustees.

5. No change shall be made in the conditions of any loan or in the terms of its repayment except by unanimous consent of the full Board of Trustees.

6. No money shall be loaned until the act of incorporation of the Society applying for aid and the plan of the building it proposes to erect have been submitted to the Trustees and approved by them.

7. Not more than half the whole value of a building and the land on which it stands shall be loaned from this fund; nor shall any loan be made, unless it suffices to clear the property of all other indebtedness.

8. Sums not exceeding $5,000 may be loaned from this fund, with or without interest, as shall be determined in each case; but, in every case, provision shall be made for the annual repayment of a certain fixed portion of the sum loaned, as may be agreed upon.

9. In return for every loan, the Trustees shall take the note of the Society, with such personal indorsement or guarantee thereof as they shall deem satisfactory, said note to be secured also by a mortgage on the church property; and in no case shall the Trustees suffer default to be made without proceeding to legal measures for the collection of the debt.

The Western Unitarian Conference.—Organized at Cincinnati, Ohio, May 7, 1852. Incorporated May 20, 1882.

Its object is the transaction of business pertaining to the general interest of the Societies connected with the Conference. The Headquarters are at 135 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill., where the publications of the American Unitarian Association, and other Liberal books and tracts, are kept on sale, and for distribution.

CONFERENCES.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864; at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the city of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19, 20, and 21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22, 23, 24, and 25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12, 13, 14, and 15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17, 18, 19, and 20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1880; the tenth, in Saratoga, Sept. 19, 20, 21, and 22, 1882; the eleventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26, 1884.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God, and the building up of the kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And until the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being re-elected at each election, and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI. — The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and continues itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the widest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

ART. X. — While we believe that the Preamble and Articles of our Constitution fairly represent the opinions of the majority of our churches, yet we wish distinctly to put on record our declaration that they are no authoritative test of Unitarianism, and are not intended to exclude from our fellowship any who, while differing from us in belief, are in general sympathy with our purposes and practical aims.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday school, charities, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, etc.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Meadville, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other CHRISTIAN CHURCHES. — Organized at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of Liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference, in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Woman's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects: —

- 1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.
- 2d. To bring all such organizations into association.

3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.

4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.

5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II. Members.—This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship; and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this Auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life-membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III. Officers.—The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee, composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV. Meetings and Reports.—The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work, and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V. Treasurer's Reports.—Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI. Use of Funds.—This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

Women's Western Unitarian Conference.—Organized at St. Louis, Mo., May 4, 1881. Incorporated May 8, 1882. Office, 135 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

This is a missionary body, having for its object to combine the Unitarian and other Liberal religious women of the West into an efficient union for the work of spreading and strengthening their Liberal religious faith. The chief methods of accomplishing this work, at present, are:—

I. To bring all the different ladies' organizations into correspondence and sympathy through the labors of a Secretary in the central office in Chicago, and through reports made at the annual meetings of the Conference.

II. To interest the women of the churches as far as possible to undertake definite courses of study in Unitarian history, biography, and literature.

III. To organize as many centres as possible, for the distribution of Unitarian literature through the post-office, in the form of tracts and papers given, and books loaned.

OFFICERS.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETIES.

THE UNITARIAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETY.

Instituted 1827 ; Reorganized 1854 ; Incorporated 1885.

This Society is now incorporated under the name of the "Unitarian Sunday-School Society, for the purpose of promoting moral and religious education in Sunday-schools." It publishes at a low price a large number of valuable text-books for Sunday-schools, a Sunday-school Service Book and Hymnal, and various other helps for Sunday-school work. It is issuing for the present year a series of Sunday-School Lessons on the one-topic plan, which are published in Quarterly Numbers, each containing ten lessons with review. Its illustrated Sunday-school paper has been enlarged to a fortnightly publication, under the name of EVERY OTHER SUNDAY, and contains a variety of reading matter for both pupils and teachers. Its missionary work is increasing in scope and importance, and it solicits the co-operation of all the Unitarian churches in America in fostering the religious nurture of the young.

A payment of ten dollars at any one time constitutes a person a life-member of this Society; and a contribution to the funds of the Society by any Unitarian parish or Sunday-school connected therewith entitles such parish, either directly or by its Sunday-school, to appoint three persons who become members of this Society for the term of one year, beginning with the first day of October next following the receipt of such contribution; and such persons are denominated Delegate Members.

The Society holds a special meeting in Boston in Anniversary Week, and has its Annual Meeting, for business, election of officers, and discussion of Sunday-school work, in October.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was formally established in 1817, though instruction in Theology had previously been given in connection with Harvard College.

Graduates of some college, or persons who shall give evidence of an education equal to that of college graduates, will be admitted as candidates for the degree of D.D. Persons not having such education may be admitted as special students on giving evidence of a good English training, and passing an examination in some of the Greek and Latin classic authors and in the Greek of the New Testament.

The Theological Library numbers 17,400 volumes. Students have also access to the College Library, which contains 232,800 volumes, and is rich in theological literature.

Students may attend without extra charge any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University.

The charges for instruction are $50.00 per year. The price of rooms varies, according to their location and desirableness, from $35.00 to $75.00 a year. It is probable that the price of board at Memorial Hall will not exceed $4.50 a week.

Pecuniary aid is furnished to students who need such help and whose character and scholarship justify it.

Society for the Relief of Aged and Destitute Clergymen, BOSTON, MASS. — Formed 1848; incorporated 1850.

This Society was organized to afford pecuniary relief to aged and destitute Unitarian clergymen. The interest of the invested fund is distributed semi-annually, in May and November, by the Executive Committee, to such persons as are qualified, according to the requirements of the Constitution, to receive aid, as follows: "All Unitarian clergymen, who have been ordained as pastors or evangelists, and who have reached the age of fifty-five years, who have retained an unspotted moral character, and who have been reduced to necessitous circumstances, may be placed on its list of beneficiaries. The claims of each applicant shall be set forth in writing by two of his clerical brethren who are well acquainted with his condition and circumstances." The names of beneficiaries are never published.

Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D.D., LL.D., President; Rev. Henry W. Foote, Secretary; William P. Kuhn, Treasurer.

"Christian Register" Association.

This Association was organized for the purpose of publishing the "Christian Register." Office at 141 Franklin Street, Boston.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

A revised catalogue of 1,452 volumes, issued in May, 1878, contains the titles of all books recommended by the Commission from its organization to that date. A list of books of reference for Sunday-school teachers is appended to this catalogue, and also printed in a separate pamphlet. The lists of the next five years are collected in a second catalogue of 452 titles, issued in 1883. Supplements are printed annually.

A list of books for general reading, adapted to the use of young persons, and intended also as a guide in the formation of small libraries, was prepared by the Commission, and issued in a separate pamphlet in 1871.

These catalogues are for sale at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-School Society, 7 Tremont Place, Boston, Mass.

Miss Martha H. Brooks, President; Miss Mary K. Lincoln, Secretary; Miss Caroline G. Soule, Librarian.

Benevolent Fraternity of Churches of Boston.—Organized 1834; incorporated 1839.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The Annual Meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday in May, at which time officers are chosen for the year. The other regular meetings are on the second Sunday in October, the second Sunday in December, and the second Sunday in March.

Executive Committee.—Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Edward S. Grew, Treasurer; James W. Austin, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the CITY OF BOSTON.—Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children of the more favored families for the children of the poor; but it appeals to all for aid in carrying on its work.

Its objects are: first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home, 277 Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1857. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

The Annual Meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. Henry P. Kidder, President; William H. Baldwin, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Croft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent; Miss Clara J. Whitcomb, Visitor; Rev. Joseph E. Barry, Miss Frances A. Ewer, and Mrs. Elizabeth D. Barry, Missionaries; Miss Emma L. Storer, Matron.

Industrial School for Girls, Boston (Dorchester).—Organized November, 1853; incorporated 1854.

This Institution is for training to good conduct and self-support destitute and neglected girls, also girls who cannot be taken care of at home, but whose relatives or friends can afford to pay a small sum for board. The time they are kept in the school is determined by the needs and circumstances of each child. It is supported by donations and subscriptions, and the income of property already received.

Miss Eliza S. Parkman, 50 Chestnut Street, President; William S. Hall, Treasurer; Miss Mary L. Hall, Dorchester, Secretary; Miss Frances R. Morse, 12 Marlboro Street, Miss Annette P. Rogers, 5 Joy Street, and Mrs. Richard M. Staigg, 16 Ashburton Place, Admission Committee.

The Temporary Home for the Destitute, Boston.—Established 1847; incorporated 1852.

This institution, at 46 Worcester Street, Boston, is intended as a temporary home for children of all ages. It is supported by subscriptions, donations, and income of property derived from donations.

John Ayres, President; John D. Williams, Treasurer; S. Parkman Blake, Jr., Clerk; Mrs. Anne L. Gwynne, Matron.

Female Benevolent Society, Providence, R. I.—Organized Dec. 12, 1815.

This Society was formed by ladies connected with the First Congregational Church in Providence. Its object is the relief of the destitute, in the parish and beyond, as far as its means allow.

Mrs. Thomas R. Sheer, President; Mrs. Mary R. Tibbetts, Treasurer; Miss Abby A. Temple, Secretary.

Children's Mission to Destitute Children, Providence, R. I.
—Formed 1857; incorporated 1867.

The object of this Society is to supply needed clothing to destitute children, and keep them in the Sunday and day schools.

The Channing Club of Chicago.—Organized April, 1881. Membership open to the members and ministers of the Unitarian congregations of Chicago and vicinity. Meetings held monthly, except during the summer, the members dining together and afterwards discussing some subject of interest to our churches.

The President is chosen for each meeting by the Committee of Managers, Porter P. Haywood, John A. Roche, George W. Dexter, Joseph Shippen, Edward H. Griggs, Secretary and Treasurer, James H. Van Vliissingen, 54 Washington Street, Room 32, Chicago.

The Unitarian Club, Boston, Mass.—Organized Jan. 26, 1882. The membership is limited to two hundred and fifty Unitarian laymen. The objects of the Club are: "To encourage friendly relations among laymen of the Unitarian faith, to secure concert of action, and to promote the general interests of the denomination." It annually holds seven monthly meetings, — on the second Wednesday of October, November, December, January, February, March, and April, at the Hotel Vendome, at which dinner is served, and some religious, philanthropic, or denominational subject discussed. The Annual Meeting occurs on the second Wednesday of January.

Hon. Robert M. Morse, Jr., President; Alexander S. Wheeler, and Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, Vice-Presidents; Francis H. Brown, M.D., Treasurer (42 Congress Street); Henry H. Edes, Secretary (87 Milk Street, Room 16); Weston Lewis, William H. Baldwin, and Oscar H. Sampson, Executive Committee, who together constitute the COUNCIL for the government and control of the Club.

ORGANIZATIONS NOT DENOMINATIONAL.

Boston Young Men's Christian Union.—Organized in 1851; incorporated in 1852.

The objects of this organization are: 1st, To furnish to the young men of Boston and vicinity a place of pleasant resort, where they will meet agreeable companions, and where the influences will be beneficial and elevating; 2d, To provide them with opportunities for self-improvement and healthful recreation, at little or no expense; 3d, To give them opportunities to do good, by engaging in charitable and benevolent work.

The rooms, at 18 Boylston Street, are open every day, Sundays included, from 8 A.M. to 10 P.M.

HUNGARY.

Unitarianism was introduced into Transylvania in 1563 by the influence of Blandrata, an Italian physician, who went thither in the train of the Polish Princess Isabella. The real apostle of Unitarianism, however, by whom was founded the church which is still prominent among the religious bodies of Transylvania, was Francis David. Born of humble parents in Klausenburg, in 1510, he completed his academical education at Wittenberg, and thus had the privilege of coming face to face with the Reformation leaders at the centre of the movement. From 1540 we find him contributing his full share of energy and thought to the consolidation of the Reformed churches in Transylvania. Up to 1557 he seems to have held the Lutheran tenets. In 1564 he was elected bishop of the Calvinists and Court chaplain to Prince John Sigismund, but soon after, in conjunction with Blandrata, he cast the whole weight of his influence in favor of the Unitarian movement, and about 1565 was chosen bishop of the new religious community. In the same year, the Edict of religious liberty was passed at the Diet of Torda, and the Unitarian faith, or as it was called the "Klausenburg Confession," spread rapidly among the Hungarian and Szekely population. In spite of the death of Prince John in 1571, and the election of a Catholic prince, no fewer than 322 Unitarian clergymen were present at the Synod of Torda in 1578. In June, 1579, however, the venerable reformer, Francis David, was sentenced to be imprisoned in the fortress of Deva, and there, one five months later, he died. In John Sigismund the Unitarian church had been deprived of its protector and magnificent patron, and in Francis David it lost its apostle and prophet. Persecution after persecution followed, through the past three centuries; but though many churches, including all those in Hungary proper, succumbed, the main body of Transylvanian Unitarians has still held its course, and to-day is a strong, and though poor, yet enlightened and deeply earnest community.

The present number of Unitarian churches in Hungary is 108, including that recently formed at Buda-Pesth, and the ecclesia filia at Moldnezo-Vasarhely on the Great Plain. These are under the superintendence of Bishop Joseph Ferencz, who is assisted by eight Rural Deans and an Ecclesiastical Council of 350 members. The number of professed Unitarians in Hungary is estimated at fully sixty thousand, but those actually enrolled, in the congregations numbered at the close of 1882, were 54,579, being an increase of 410 on the number in 1881. Of this increase 108 is due to the fact that 145 new adherents came over from other Churches, while only 37 Unitarians withdrew. The number of young people confirmed in 1882 was 770. The educational institutions of the Hungarian Unitarians have exercised a powerful influence far beyond the limits of the congregations. Scarcely all the churches have had day schools attached to them ever since their establishment over three centuries ago. The higher education is provided for by the College or High School at Klausenburg, and the Middle Schools at Thorda and Szekely-Keresztur, there having been several other collegiate institutions before the times of the persecution. The Klausenburg College, founded by Prince John Sigismund about 1569, and located at first in the old Burg above the city, had in 1883 348 students; 19 in the theological department, 259 in the eight gymnasial classes, and 70 in the elementary section. Of these 186 were Unitarians, 43 Calvinists, 26 Lutherans, 40 Roman Catholics, 24 Greek Church, and 25 Jews. The English language is obligatory in the theological department, and in that year 14 students in the gymnasial classes studied English voluntarily. The present Rector, elected recently for a third term of office, is Professor John Kovács. There are also five theological professors, nine ordinary professors, and about an equal number of assistant professors and teachers. The amount paid annually in scholarships, and prizes for poor and deserving students, is about £1000; and there is also a hospital for sick pupils, and a college library of about 25,000 volumes. The buildings of this institution are sadly overcrowded, and greatly need extension. At Thorda, there are 183 pupils and 14 professors and teachers; and at Szekely-Keresztur 152, under nine professors and teachers. The number of Unitarian scholars in these two institutions is 63 and 10 respectively. At Thorda, the library contains only 2,170 volumes, but at Szekely-Keresztur there is a collection of 10,040 volumes, which is specially valuable in so remote a district. The principal recent occurrence of note in the Hungarian Church was the meeting, in 1883, of the General Synod (held once in four years) at Vargyas, a beautiful Unitarian village in Eastern Transylvania. This was presided over by the Bishop and the chief lay curator of the Church, Gabriel Daniel, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Udvarhely. The splendid gift of a site, near the new houses of Parliament, for the proposed church in Buda-Pesth, by the municipality of that city, was officially reported as an event of a most gratifying kind. The success of Professor Kovács's visit to America also gave great pleasure. The Anna Richmond Professorship has been fully endowed, mainly through his efforts, and Professor Boros was appointed to the chair. About $5,000 was collected by Mr. Kovács for the Channing Professorship and invested. Additions continue to be made to the religious literature of the Hungarian Church, and its chief organ, The Christian Seed-ower, prospers under the joint editorship of Professor Kovács and the Rev. Dezs Peterfy, First Minister of the Klausenburg Church.

GERMANY, HOLLAND, AND SWITZERLAND.

The ministers connected with the Protestant Unions of Germany and Holland, and the Free Christian Union of Switzerland hold opinions which are approximate to those of Unitarians, but the names commonly applied to them are Liberals, Moderns, and Reformers. The recently formed "Church of the People," under Dr. Kalthoff, in Berlin, is an independent movement of a more advanced type.

BELGIUM.

Liberal Protestant services are conducted by Mons. J. Hocart, every Sunday at 11 a.m., throughout the year (excepting August and September), in the Hall at the Bourse, Brussels. — M. Hocart's private address, is 20 Rue de Neuchatel, St. Gilles, Bruxelles.

Hymn and Tune Book,

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME,
AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL
WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services,
also revised; being a square 16mo, of 517
pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book,
with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; with a discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen. In Turkey morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively, with a discount of ten per cent to societies and clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

Hymn, Tune, and Service Book,

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS. Square 16mo, 220 pp. $6.00 a dozen; single copies, 60 cts.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, to which is added a collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers. The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces.

In the Clearings.

PREFACE.

THE Year Book for 1887 conforms to the same general plan which has shaped its predecessors and made them, as we trust, both useful and satisfactory. Attention is again called to the roll of those churches which, under Article 3 of the By-Laws, have acquired the right to be represented by delegates at all meetings of the Association. The biennial session of the National Conference was held in September at Saratoga. There was a large attendance, and the spirit of the meeting was admirable. The enthusiasm and inspiration of such a gathering ought to quicken the life of our body in every part, and lead the parishes and people to a more earnest and generous fidelity to their duty and work. The new denominational building, which was opened to the public June 18, and dedicated with fitting services June 24, proves to be in every way adapted to its purposes; and it is hoped that it will become more and more a home for our various denominational activities, and a place of meeting and conference for our people.

The year has been marked by the death of two persons who have filled the position of President of the Association, — Henry P. Kibler, who died in the office, after many years of invaluable service; and Rev. Samuel K. Lothrop, D.D., who closed a long and useful life at fourscore. We have also to note the loss of Rev. Leonard J. Lavermore, who, while Secretary of the Sunday-School Society, did excellent work for the Association. The sudden departure of Rev. C. H. A. Dall has called attention, both here and in England, to his remarkable work and his almost unique fitness for his post. To these we must add the names of the venerable Rev. Charles C. Sewall, of Rev. John B. Torricelli, an Italian Unitarian resident in this country, and of Rev. Frank P. Hamblett and Rev. William B. Smith, — men whom broken health removed from their chosen work in mid-life.

THE NEW STANDARDS OF TIME.

The times given in this Year-Book, unless designated as in accordance with the new railroad standards of time, are the local astronomical mean times, regulated by the position of the sun with regard to the meridian of each place, such as they were before the adoption of the new railroad standards.

Four standard meridians have been adopted for the United States, and one for the Dominion of Canada. Intercolonial, 60° west from Greenwich, Eng.; Eastern, 75°; Central, 90°; Mountain, 105°; Pacific, 120°.

The Eastern standard meridian, for the eastern part of the United States, passes about $\frac{2}{3}$ of a minute of time east of Philadelphia, nearly four minutes of time west of New York City, and very nearly through Ogdensburg, N. Y.

The Central standard meridian passes through New Orleans, La. St. Louis, Mo., is about one minute of time west of it, and Chicago about 19½ minutes of time east of it.

The Mountain meridian passes through the Rocky Mountains, very near Pike's Peak, Col.

The Pacific standard meridian is near the Pacific coast, San Francisco being about 9½ minutes of time west of it.

For these several standard meridians themselves the times of the Year-Book will be correct, because for those standards no departure is made from the old method of regulating time by the sun.

But for any place east of either of these standard meridians and within 7½° of it, one minute of time must be subtracted from the Year-Book times for every quarter of a degree of longitude that the place is distant from that standard meridian, or four minutes of time for each degree.

For a place west of any standard meridian and within 7½° of it, add one minute of time for each quarter of a degree, or four minutes of time for each degree of distance from that standard, to the Year-Book times.

Any ordinary school map of the United States will give the distances in longitude of places from the standard meridians with sufficient accuracy for applying these rules.

COLLEGE AND THEOLOGICAL-SCHOOL TERMS, COMMENCEMENTS, AND VACATIONS.

Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. — CHARLES W. ELIOT, LL.D., President. — Commencement, the last Wednesday in June. The Academic Year begins on the Thursday following the last Wednesday in September, and ends at Commencement, with recesses at Christmas and Fast Day. Postal Regulations, 1887.

POSTAGE IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE POSTAGE, EXCEPT FOR SECOND-CLASS MATTER, MUST BE PREPAID, AT LEAST PARTLY, BY POSTAGE STAMPS. ALL MAILABLE MATTER, IF NOT BELONGING TO THE SECOND-CLASS, IF PREPAID THE REGULAR POSTAGE, WILL BE ENTITLED TO AN IMMEDIATE DELIVERY BY MESSENGER IF BEARING A SPECIAL DELIVERY STAMP OF 10 CENTS.

UNMAILABLE MATTER.—All ardent, vicious, spirituous, or malt liquors, poisons, inflammations and explosive articles, and everything capable of damaging the mails or harm the persons who handle them, and anything containing bottles, or enterprises intended to deceive the public for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretences, and all obscene matter.

FIRST-CLASS MATTER. — Letters. The postage on letters is 2 cts. for each ounce or fraction thereof. Articles of mail subject to inspection, visiting cards, envelopes and tags with written addresses thereon, matter protected by the law of water and other processes, in the nature of personal correspondence, invitations for publication, notices with proofs, drawings, plans, designs, and deeds, permits, and matter of the same general nature, wholly or partly in writing, are charged as letters. Drops of Local Letters to be delivered in the office where mailed, 2 cts. an ounce, at offices where the delivery messenger is established, at other offices, 1 ct. Prepaid letters, not delivered at the first office named, will be forwarded to the place where the party addressed is, if known or returned to the writer, if indubitably with that request, free. Letters to be mailed from one office to another will not be sent unless prepaid at least 2 cts. Postal Cards, with only the address written on the face, 1 ct.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER. — Newspapers and Periodicals to regular subscribers. No limitation of weight. When received from a known office of publication regularly, as often as four times a year and not designed primarily for advertising purposes, and not addressed to letter-carrier offices (excepting weeklies), the postage for each pound or fraction is 1 ct.; the matter in no cases to be weighed in bulk, at the office of mailing. When for letter-carrier offices (excepting weeklies), for 2 oz. or less, 1 ct.; over 2 oz., 2 cts. Weeklies in all cases for each pound or fraction, 1 ct.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER. — On Transient Newspapers and Magazines, regularly issued, the postage is 1 ct. for every 4 oz. or fraction; on Books (Printed), Pamphlets, and occasional publications, circulars, engravings, photographs, posters, printed blanks, proof-sheets, manuscript copy if accompanied with proof, vignettes and sheet music, the postage on one package, to one address, is 1 ct. for every 2 oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs., except single volumes of printed books, which may weigh over 4 lbs.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER. — Merchandise. Letter-envelopes, with printed addresses, sample cards, labels, patterns, bill heads, letter heads, plain, ornamental, or perforated paper, engravings, blank books, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, paper sacks, wrapping-paper, blotting paper, playing cards, models, metals, ores, and minerals, and other articles of merchandise, 1 ct. for every oz. or fraction, the weight of the package being limited to 4 lbs. The number and names of the articles enclosed, and addresses, may be either written, printed, or affixed, at the option of the sender, but any writing of the nature of a letter or personal correspondence, in or upon any article, will subject it to letter rates.

REGISTRATION.—All mail matter, except Second-Class, may be registered by prepayment of a fee of 10 cts. for each address, in addition to the required postage.

MONEY ORDERS for any amount not exceeding $100 on one order, are issued in the principal offices on payment of the following fees: On orders not exceeding $5, — 5 cts.; over $5, and not exceeding $10, — 8 cts.; over $10, and not exceeding $15, — 10 cts.; over $15, and not exceeding $20, — 15 cts.; over $20, and not exceeding $40, — 20 cts.; over $40, and not exceeding $50, — 25 cts.; over $50, and not exceeding $60, — 30 cts.; over $60, and not exceeding $70, — 35 cts.; over $70, and not exceeding $80, — 40 cts.; over $80, and not exceeding $100, — 45 cts.

POSTAL NOTES.—All money-order offices issue postal notes for from 1 ct. to $1.99 inclusive, payable to the bearer in any office named on their face, or where issued, within 3 months from the last day of the month of issue, — for which a fee of 3 cts. is charged besides the amount of the note.

POSTAGE TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

All articles unmailable in the United States are also excluded from foreign mails; also letters and postal cards addressed "Around the World," or in words to the same effect.

It is also forbidden to send in the mails to foreign countries coin, jewelry, articles of gold or silver, or anything subject to customs duty. Packages will not be forwarded at sample rates unless they are actually trade-samples, and also enclosed in such a manner as will admit of an easy examination. Presents are subject to letter rates, unless forming printed matter, also electrotypes and cuts.  Gold or silver coin may be sent to Canada.

A star (*) means that prepayment is optional. Registered matter, however, must always be prepaid in full.

THE POSTAL UNION.—Canada, including British Columbia (Vancouver's Island), Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island, letters,

2 cts. an ounce or fraction. The domestic Postal Card may be sent to Canada without any extra stamp. All kinds of printed matter to Canada the same as in the United States. Articles of merchandise are expressly excluded from the rates to Canada. Books—Books samples may be sent for 10 cents for a weight limited to 8 oz. List of Societies,

WITH THEIR MINISTERS.

With the name of each Society is given that of the person who has charge of it. In a few instances the person so named has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

List of Ministers,

WITH THEIR RESIDENCES.

This list is intended to give the names of all persons who have charge of Unitarian societies in the United States and Canada, whether as pastors or stated supplies, of all ministers, now acting, not in fellowship with some other denomination, who have been pastors of such societies and have not withdrawn from the profession, and of ordained Ministers from other denominations, who have been approved by the Committee on Fellowship of the National Conference. In some instances the person in charge of a society has not been ordained, or is a clergyman in fellowship with some other denomination. The absence of a date of settlement indicates that the relation is that of stated supply.

Ministers not in charge of a society, either as pastor or stated supply, have their names preceded by †. A large proportion of these have occupation outside the ministry, or else, on account of age or for other reasons, do not desire a settlement.

Missionary Associations.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Founded 1825; Incorporated 1847.

THIS Association was organized in Boston, May 25, 1825. Its objects, as defined in the report of the Committee on Organization, are as follows:—

1st, To collect and diffuse information respecting the state of Unitarian Christianity in our country.

2d, To produce union, sympathy, and co-operation among Liberal Christians.

3d, To publish and distribute books and tracts, inculcating correct views of religion, in such form and at such price as shall afford all an opportunity of being acquainted with Christian truth.

4th, To supply missionaries, especially in such parts of our country as are destitute of a stated ministry.

5th, To adopt whatever other measures may hereafter seem expedient, — such as contributions in behalf of clergymen with insufficient salaries, or in aid of building churches.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors is divided into Standing Committees, as follows, the Secretary being ex officio Chairman, and the Assistant Secretary a member of each Committee, but not entitled to vote:—

Finance. — Messrs. Gaffield, Burrage, James, Whitney, and Calder.

Publication. — Messrs. De Normandie, Hornbrooke, Wendt, Beach, and Miss Channing.

New England States. — Messrs. Stewart, Burrage, James, Beach, and Mrs. Wentworth.

Middle and Southern States. — Messrs. Gaffield, Brown, Putnam, Richardson, and Calder.

Western States and Pacific Coast. — Messrs. Horton, Sunderland, Thayer, Otis, and Miss Channing.

Foreign Missions. — Messrs. Whitney, Hornbrooke, Richardson, Otis, and Mrs. Wentworth.

Theological Education. — Messrs. Stewart, De Normandie, Brown, Horton, and Wendt.

Executive Committee. — Messrs. Gaffield, Brown, Burrage, De Normandie, Calder, Whitney, and Horton.

* * * The Building of the Association is at 25 Beacon Street, Boston, where the Secretary may usually be found from 10 A.M. till 2 P.M., — that is, when not away from the city at Conferences, or on other Association work. The Assistant Secretary will be there every day from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M.

The office of the Treasurer is also at that place; and all letters for him, on business connected with the Association, should be addressed to him as "Treasurer of the American Unitarian Association, Boston."

The new Building contains, besides the Book Rooms of the Association and the Unitarian Sunday School Society, the Reading Room, and Rooms occupied by the Secretaries of the Association and other boards, Channing Hall, with seats for three hundred, and Committee Rooms of various sizes. The Hall and Committee Rooms are at the service of Unitarians for denominational meetings of all kinds, arrangements for such use to be made with the Assistant Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.—The object of the American Unitarian Association shall be to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity; and all Unitarian Christians shall be invited to unite and co-operate with it for that purpose.

ART. II.—A subscription of fifty dollars shall constitute a person a member of this Association for life.

ART. III.—The churches contributing to the funds of this Association shall be entitled to representation under the following conditions, namely:—

Any church or missionary association, of at least two years' standing, shall, upon sending a contribution for missionary uses to the Treasurer of the Association for two successive years, be entitled to representation at all business meetings of the Association, by the persons of its minister or president, and two additional lay delegates; provided that such contributions shall be placed in the hands of the officers of the Association on or before May 1, to entitle a church to be represented in the following annual meeting.

Delegate members shall have the right to vote at all meetings of the Association.

ART. IV.—The Board of Directors may by a unanimous vote at a regular meeting, two thirds of their number being present, elect Honorary Members of this Association, who shall have the same rights and privileges as other members. Such elections shall be by ballot, and nominations shall lie over at least one month.

ART. V.—The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer, and eighteen other persons, who, with them, shall constitute a Board of Directors. These officers, fourteen of whom, at least, shall be laymen, shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer shall be chosen annually, to serve for one year each, or until their successors are chosen. The other Directors shall be chosen for three years, or until their successors are chosen; and one third shall be chosen annually.

ART. VI.—This Board shall meet at least once in three months, eight constituting a quorum; and shall have charge of all the business and interests of the Association, the direction of its funds and operations; with power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number between any two annual meetings, and to call special meetings of the Corporation whenever they shall deem it necessary or expedient.

They may choose from their own number an Executive Committee, which shall meet at the call of the Secretary or President, and shall have charge of such business as may be intrusted to it by the Board of Directors.

ART. VII.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a full record of the meetings of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors; to conduct the correspondence of the Association, and keep an accurately arranged file of the same; and, in general, to perform such services, to suggest, devise, and execute, under the direction of the Board of Directors, such plans and measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to promote the objects of the Association, increase its usefulness, and enlarge the sphere of its influence; and the Assistant Secretaries shall render such service as shall be specified by the Board of Directors. The salaries of the Secretaries shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors, the Secretaries not voting.

ART. VIII.—The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held in the month of May, at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint; of which due notice shall be given, by circular to the churches, and by advertisement in two or more newspapers published in Boston, at least ten days previous.

ART. IX.—Any amendment of these articles, proposed at one annual meeting, may be adopted at the next, if a majority of the members present vote in favor of it.

DELEGATE SOCIETIES.

The following Societies, having complied with the conditions contained in Article III. of the By-Laws, became thus entitled to representation at the Annual Meeting of 1886, and any subsequent meetings which might be held previous to the next Annual Meeting.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The By-Laws of the Association provide that "a subscription of $50 shall constitute a person a member for life," and the following named 1363 persons now occupy that position of whom 883 were whose names are in italics, have been added during the year 1886.

Should any one find in the list the name of a person not living, a favor will be conferred by communicating the fact to the Secretary of the Association.

CHURCH BUILDING LOAN FUND.

Organized Jan. 13, 1885.

This Fund, the object of which is to aid Unitarian Societies in the erection of churches, was created by the American Unitarian Association, with the co-operation and assistance of the National Conference. The Trustees of the Fund are elected by the Directors of the Association; but in the transaction of business, the Trustees are an entirely independent board.

All business communications should be addressed to the Secretary, at Brookline, Mass.

TRUSTEES.

Hon. George D. Robinson, LL.D., Chicopee, Mass.	President.	Rev. Grindall Reynolds, Concord, Mass.
Rev. Howard N. Brown, Brookline, Mass.	Secretary.	Henry W. Putnam, Boston, Mass.
Charles H. Burrage, Boston, Mass.	Treasurer.	J. Harsen Rhoades, New York, N Y.
Rev. Brooke Herford, Boston, Mass.		Rev. Jabez F. Sunderland, Chicago, Ill.
		Rev. George A. Thayer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Standing Committee.

Rev. Brooke Herford, Rev. Grindall Reynolds, Rev. Howard N. Brown.

RULES.

1. The Officers of this Board shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Standing Committee of three, to receive and report applications for aid, these officers to be chosen annually.
2. The Board shall meet annually in the month of May, during Anniversary Week, and at other times, according to its own votes or the call of its officers.
3. No money from the fund held by this Board shall be bestowed as a gift, and all loans from the same shall be made on adequate security.
4. No money shall be loaned except by consent of seven of the nine Trustees.
5. No change shall be made in the conditions of any loan or in the terms of its repayment except by unanimous consent of the full Board of Trustees.
6. No money shall be loaned until the act of incorporation of the Society applying for aid and the plan of the building it proposes to erect have been submitted to the Trustees and approved by them.
7. Not more than half the whole value of a building and the land on which it stands shall be loaned from this fund; nor shall any loan be made, unless it suffices to clear the property of all other indebtedness.
8. Sums not exceeding $5,000 may be loaned from this fund, with or without interest, as shall be determined in each case; but, in every case, provision shall be made for the annual repayment of a certain fixed portion of the sum loaned, as may be agreed upon.
9. In return for every loan, the Trustees shall take the note of the Society, with such personal indorsement or guarantee thereof as they shall deem satisfactory, said note to be secured also by a mortgage on the church property; and in no case shall the Trustees suffer default to be made without proceeding to legal measures for the collection of the debt.

The Western Unitarian Conference.—Organized at Cincinnati, Ohio, May 7, 1852. Incorporated May 20, 1882.

Conferences.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNITARIAN AND OTHER CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

This National Conference owes its organization to a special meeting of the American Unitarian Association, held Dec. 7, 1864; at which, in view of the need of enlarged denominational activity, a resolution was adopted calling "a convention, to consist of the pastor and two delegates from each church or parish in the Unitarian denomination, to meet in the city of New York, to consider the interests of our cause, and to institute measures for its good."

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N. Y.; the third, Oct. 7-9, 1868, in the city of New York; the fourth, at the same place, Oct. 19-21, 1870; the fifth, in Boston, Mass., Oct. 22-25, 1872; the sixth, in Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15-18, 1874; the seventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 12-15, 1876; the eighth, in Saratoga, Sept. 17-20, 1878; the ninth, in Saratoga, Sept. 21-24, 1880; the tenth, in Saratoga, Sept. 19-22, 1882; the eleventh, in Saratoga, Sept. 22-26, 1884; the twelfth, in Saratoga, Sept. 20-24, 1886.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God, and the building up of the kingdom of his Son, —

ARTICLE I. — Therefore the Christian churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

ART. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

ART. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, a General Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed. And half the number of the Council shall consist of new members, the oldest members being retired at each election, and giving place to the new members.

ART. VI. — The Council, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, may fill vacancies in the board of government, and shall have charge of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — Reaffirming our allegiance to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and desiring to secure the largest unity of the spirit, and the widest practical co-operation, we invite to our fellowship all who wish to be followers of Christ.

ART. X. — While we believe that the Preamble and Articles of our Constitution fairly represent the opinions of the majority of our churches, yet we wish distinctly to put on record our declaration that they are no authoritative test of Unitarianism, and are not intended to exclude from our fellowship any who, while differing from us in belief, are in general sympathy with our purposes and practical aims.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The General Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday-school, charities, and general working may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The General Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the General Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, etc.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

REGULATIONS OF COMMITTEE ON FELLOWSHIP.

(Prepared in accordance with instructions given by the National Conference, at its meeting in 1878.)

1. Whenever any person, who has not received instruction in the Divinity School at Cambridge, the Theological School at Meadville, or in any school of theology of the Unitarian faith elsewhere, shall desire to enter the Unitarian ministry, he shall be requested to make application, expressing such desire, to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowship, or to the Chairman of the sub-committee nearest his residence.

2. Upon making such application, the candidate shall present to the Committee satisfactory testimonials of his fitness for the ministry.

3. If the Committee are assured of the fitness of the candidate, they shall give to him a certificate of their approval, and they shall at once inform the Secretary of each Local Conference of their action in the premises.

Women's Auxiliary Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches. — Organized at the meeting of the National Conference at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1880.

This Conference was organized to meet the wish, expressed by women in all parts of the country, that they might share more definitely in the work of the National Conference. To serve the great cause of Liberal religion is the purpose of the Association, and it will seek to do this by increasing and quickening faith in the grand, vital truths of religion, and by making practical their power to help and bless all who may be reached by its influence.

A preliminary meeting was held at Saratoga, at the time of the meeting of the National Conference in September, 1878, and the organization was completed at the next meeting of that Conference, in September, 1880.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I., Objects. — We, women of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, assembled at Saratoga, September, 1880, hereby organize ourselves into a Woman's Auxiliary Conference, with the following objects: —

- 1st. To promote local organizations of women for Christian work.
- 2d. To bring all such organizations into association.
- 3d. To hold a biennial meeting at the time and place of the National Conference; and to hold such other meetings as may be deemed expedient.

4th. To stimulate the interest of women in the work of the National Conference, and to assist in raising money for such measures as it recommends.

5th. To collect information as to the amount of money raised and the work done for denominational purposes by the different organizations of women, that all may be encouraged in their efforts.

ART. II., Members.—This Conference shall be composed of delegates from each organization of women within our fellowship, and all women attending the National Conference shall be cordially invited to participate in the proceedings of this Auxiliary Conference. From each an annual subscription of $1.00, or a life-membership fee of $25.00, shall be sought as an earnest of the "faith that is in us."

ART. III., Officers.—The business of this Conference shall be intrusted to an Executive Committee, composed of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Board of Directors, each of whom shall represent a local conference. These officers shall be chosen at the biennial meeting. This Committee shall have power to fill vacancies. They shall arrange for their own meetings, and five shall constitute a quorum.

ART. IV., Meetings and Reports.—The Executive Committee shall, either by correspondence or by sending agents, enter into communication with the women of all our churches, informing them of the plans of the Conference, and asking for co-operation.

It shall present a report at the biennial meeting, and shall also prepare a statement of its work, and recommendations for the general session of the National Conference.

Three months before the time fixed by the National Conference for its meeting, the Executive Committee shall issue a circular letter of call to the women of each church and organization in its fellowship.

ART. V., Financial Reports.—Every six months the Treasurer shall make report in the "Christian Register" of contributions to our treasury; and, for the purposes of information above stated, shall ask from the organizations working with us reports of money raised by them, which shall also be published as above. She shall also present a report at the meeting of the Conference.

Reports of parish work, Sunday-schools, charities, missionary work, and any other matters that belong to the spread of religion, shall properly come before the biennial meeting.

ART. VI., Use of Funds.—This Conference may, at any biennial meeting, name the special object of its contribution. It shall distribute its funds through the American Unitarian Association, with the exception of such amount as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Constitution.

The Unitarian Church Temperance Society.—Organized at the meeting of the National Conference, at Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1886.

Its purpose is "to work for the cause of temperance in whatever ways may seem to it wise and right; to study the social problems of poverty, crime, and disease in their relation to the use of intoxicating drinks, and to diffuse whatever knowledge may be gained; to discuss methods of temperance reform; to devise and, so far as possible, to execute plans for practical reform; to exert, by its meetings and by its membership, such influence for good as by the grace of God it may possess."

It is composed of Branch Societies in sympathy with the above-named purpose, either in churches or Sunday schools, and the meetings will be held once in two years in connection with the National Conference; each Branch Society being represented by two delegates.

OFFICERS.

Women's Western Unitarian Conference.—Organized at St. Louis, Mo., May 4, 1881. Incorporated May 8, 1882. Office, 175 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

This is a missionary body, having for its object to combine the Unitarian and other Liberal religious women of the West into an efficient union for the work of spreading and strengthening their Liberal religious faith. The chief methods of accomplishing this work, at present, are:—

I. To bring all the different ladies' organizations into correspondence and sympathy through the labors of a Secretary in the central office in Chicago, and through reports made at the annual meetings of the Conference.

II. To interest the women of the churches as far as possible to undertake definite courses of study in Unitarian history, biography, and literature.

III. To organize as many centres as possible, for the distribution of Unitarian literature through the post-office, in the form of tracts and papers given, and books loaned.

Sunday-School Societies.

THE UNITARIAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL SOCIETY.

Instituted 1827 ; Reorganized 1854 ; Incorporated 1885.

This Society is now incorporated under the name of the "Unitarian Sunday-School Society, for the purpose of promoting moral and religious education in Sunday-schools." It publishes at a low price a large number of valuable text books for Sunday-schools, a Sunday-school Service Book and Hymnal, and various other helps for Sunday-school work. It is issuing for the present year a series of Sunday-School Lessons on Bible Biographies. Its illustrated Sunday-school paper has been enlarged to a fortnightly publication, under the name of EVERY OTHER SUNDAY, and contains a variety of reading matter for both pupils and teachers. Its missionary work is increasing in scope and importance, and it solicits the co-operation of all the Unitarian churches in America in fostering the religious nurture of the young.

A payment of ten dollars at any one time constitutes a person a life-member of this Society ; and a contribution to the funds of the Society by any Unitarian parish or Sunday-school connected therewith entitles such parish, either directly or by its Sunday-school, to appoint three persons who become members of this Society for the term of one year, beginning with the first day of October next following the receipt of such contribution ; and such persons are denominated Delegate Members.

The Society holds a special meeting in Boston in Anniversary Week, and has its Annual Meeting, for business, election of officers, and discussion of Sunday-school work, in October.

Theological Schools.

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

This institution was formally established in 1817, though instruction in Theology had previously been given in connection with Harvard College.

Graduates of some college, or persons who shall give evidence of an education equal to that of college graduates, will be admitted as candidates for the degree of D.D. Persons not having such education may be admitted as special students on giving evidence of a good English training, and passing an examination in some of the Greek and Latin classic authors and in the Greek of the New Testament.

The Theological Library numbers 17,400 volumes. Students have also access to the College Library, which contains 238,800 volumes, and is rich in theological literature.

Students in regular standing may attend without extra charge any exercises for which they are fitted in other departments of the University.

The charges for instruction are $50.00 per year. The price of rooms varies, according to their location and desirableness, from $35.00 to $75.00 a year. It is probable that the price of board at Memorial Hall will not exceed $4.50 a week.

Pecuniary aid is furnished to students who need such help and whose character and scholarship justify it.

Society for the Relief of Aged and Destitute Clergymen, Boston, Mass. — Formed 1848; incorporated 1850.

This Society was organized to afford pecuniary relief to aged and destitute Unitarian clergymen. The interest of the invested fund is distributed semi-annually, in May and November, by the Executive Committee, to such persons as are qualified, according to the requirements of the Constitution, to receive aid, as follows: "All Unitarian clergymen, who have been ordained as pastors or evangelists, and who have reached the age of fifty-five years, who have retained an unspotted moral character, and who have been reduced to destitute circumstances, may be placed on its list of beneficiaries. The claims of each applicant shall be set forth in writing by two of his clerical brethren who are well acquainted with his condition and circumstances." The names of beneficiaries are never published.

Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D.D., LL.D., Cambridge, President; Rev. Henry W. Foote, Boston, Secretary; William P. Kuhn, Boston, Treasurer.

The Ladies' Commission on Sunday-School Books.

This Commission reports to the Executive Committee of the American Unitarian Association, and carries on its work by the aid of their appropriations. Its chief object is the preparation of lists of books suitable for Unitarian Sunday-school libraries. Books received from publishers are carefully examined, and those approved by five readers are placed upon the Catalogue of the Commission.

Annual lists have been printed every May since 1866. In September of 1886 a catalogue was issued of titles selected from the annual lists from 1866 to 1885, with descriptive notes.

The catalogues can be obtained at the office of the Unitarian Sunday-School Society, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Miss Martha H. Brooks, President; Mrs. Francis H. Lee, Secretary; Miss Caroline G. Soule, Librarian.

"Christian Register" Association.

This Association was organized for the purpose of publishing the "Christian Register." Office at 141 Franklin Street, Boston.

Benevolent Fraternity of Churches in the City of Boston. — Organized 1834; incorporated 1839.

This Association was organized for the purpose of sustaining the Ministry at Large in the city of Boston, and is composed of delegates from the different Unitarian churches in the city. Its funds are derived in part from annual contributions, and in part from permanent investments.

The Annual Meeting of the Fraternity is on the first Sunday in May, at which time officers are chosen for the year. The other regular meetings are on the second Sunday in October, the second Sunday in December, and the second Sunday in March.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Edward A. Horton, President; John Capen, Secretary; Grenville H. Norcross, Treasurer; James W. Austin, Frederic H. Nazro.

Children's Mission to the Children of the Destitute in the City of Boston. — Instituted 1849; incorporated 1864.

This Society, as its name indicates, is a work of children of the more favored families for the children of the poor; but it appeals to all for aid in carrying on its work.

Its objects are: first, the care of orphan, homeless, destitute, or neglected children, providing homes for them in the country, and adopting such measures as will save them from vice, ignorance, and degradation; and second, to excite and encourage in the young a spirit of Christian sympathy and active benevolence, by interesting them in this work which appeals so strongly to their hearts.

The Children's Mission Home, 277 Tremont Street, opposite Common Street, was dedicated March 27, 1867. Homeless, destitute, and exposed children are here temporarily taken, while homes are procured for them.

The office for the business of the Society is in this building, where the Superintendent or one of the missionaries may be found daily, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

The Annual Meeting for the choice of officers occurs on the first Wednesday in May. William H. Baldwin, President; Warren P. Tyler, Vice-President; Rev. Samuel B. Craft, Secretary; Henry Pickering, Treasurer; William Crosby, Superintendent; Miss Clara J. Whitecomb, Visitor; Rev. Joseph E. Barry, Miss Frances A. Ewer, and Mrs. Elizabeth D. Barry, Missionaries; Miss Emma L. Storer, Matron.

Industrial School for Girls, Boston (Dorchester).—Organized November, 1853; incorporated 1854.

This Institution is for training to good conduct and self-support destitute and neglected girls, also girls who cannot be taken care of at home, but whose relatives or friends can afford to pay a small sum for board. The time they are kept in the school is determined by the needs and circumstances of each child. It is supported by donations and subscriptions, and the income of property already received.

Miss Eliza S. Parkman, 50 Chestnut Street, President; William S. Hall, 8 Congress Street, Treasurer; Miss Frances R. Morse, 12 Marlboro' Street, Secretary; Miss Annette P. Rogers, 5 Joy Street, and Mrs. Richard M. Staigg, 92 Charles Street, Admission Committee.

The Temporary Home for the Destitute, Boston.—Established 1847; incorporated 1852.

This institution, at 46 Worcester Street, Boston, is intended as a temporary home for children of all ages. It is supported by subscriptions, donations, and income of property derived from donations.

John Ayres, President; John D. Williams, Treasurer; S. Parkman Blake, Jr., Clerk; Mrs. Anne L. Gwynne, Matron.

Female Benevolent Society, Providence, R. I.—Organized Dec. 12, 1815.

This Society was formed by ladies connected with the First Congregational Church in Providence. Its object is the relief of the destitute, in the parish and beyond, as far as its means allow.

Children's Mission to Destitute Children, Providence, R. I.—Formed 1857; incorporated 1867.

The object of this Society is to supply needed clothing to destitute children, and keep them in the Sunday and day schools.

J. Thomas Smith, President; Joel Metcalf, Vice-President; Samuel H. Tingley, Treasurer; Miss Elodie Bush, Secretary.

Unitarian Educational Society, New Hampshire.—Incorporated July 19, 1879.

Joseph C. A. Hill, Concord, President; Solon A. Carter, Concord, Vice-President; Herbert B. Dow, Andover, Clerk; Lewis Downing, Jr., Concord, Treasurer.

The Channing Club of Chicago, Ill.—Organized April, 1881. Membership open to the members and ministers of the Unitarian congregations of Chicago and vicinity. Meetings held monthly, except during the summer, the members dining together and afterwards discussing some subject of interest to our churches.

The President is chosen for each meeting by the Committee of Managers, Edward H. Griggs, M. B. Hall, H. T. Thompson, John A. Roche, George W. Dexter. Secretary and Treasurer, James H. Van Vliissingen, 94 Washington Street, Room 32, Chicago.

The Unitarian Club, Boston, Mass. — Organized Jan. 26, 1882. The membership is limited to two hundred and fifty Unitarian laymen. The objects of the Club are: "To encourage friendly relations among laymen of the Unitarian faith, to secure concert of action, and to promulgate the general interests of the denomination." It annually holds seven monthly meetings, — on the second Wednesday of October, November, December, January, February, March, and April, — at the Hotel Vendome, at which dinner is served, and some religious, philanthropic, or denominational subject discussed. The Annual Meeting occurs on the second Wednesday of January.

Hon. Robert M. Morse, Jr., President; Alexander S. Wheeler, and Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, Vice-Presidents; Francis H. Brown, M.D., Treasurer (42 Congress Street); Henry H. Sampson, Executive Committee, who together constitute the COUNCIL for the government and control of the Club.

Organizations not Denominational.

Massachusetts Convention of Congregational Ministers. — Dates from the earliest times of the Colony. Annual business meeting in the Court Room of the Supreme Judicial Court in Boston, at 5 P. M., on the last Wednesday in May. Sermon at 11 A. M., on the day following. At this service a collection is taken, which, with the income of the Convention Fund, is distributed to the widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every minister of a Congregational Church (whether Trinitarian or Unitarian) is ex officio a member of the Convention.

There is a Reporting Committee of twenty-five, selected by counties throughout the State, by which recommendations are made to a Central Committee of seven, which decides on all applications for aid.

Permanent Officers. — Rev. Edward N. Packard, Boston (Dorchester), Scribe, and Rev. Henry F. Jenks, Canton, Treasurer; to either of whom applications may be addressed.

Massachusetts Congregational Charitable Society. — Incorporated in 1786. Organized to hold the funds of the Convention. Composed of fifteen clergymen and fifteen laymen, elected from both branches of the Congregational body. Aids the widows and orphans of deceased Congregational clergymen who have died while holding the pastoral office.

Hon. Henry B. Rogers, Boston, President; Rev. Henry F. Jenks, Canton, Secretary; Ezra Farnsworth, Boston, Treasurer; Rev. Edwin B. Webb, D.D., Rev. Henry F. Jenks, Rev. Alexander McKenzie, D.D., Committee on Appropriations.

Applications for aid should be made to Rev. Henry F. Jenks, Canton, Mass.

Boston Young Men's Christian Union. — Organized in 1851; incorporated in 1852.

The objects of this organization are: 1st, To furnish to the young men of Boston and vicinity a place of pleasant resort, where they will meet agreeable companions, and where the influences will be beneficial and elevating; 2d, To provide them with opportunities for self-improvement and healthful recreation, at little or no expense; 3d, To give them opportunities to do good, by engaging in charitable and benevolent work.

The rooms, at 18 Boylston Street, are open every day, Sundays included, from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Membership for one year, one dollar; subscription membership, five dollars a year; for life, twenty-five dollars. All young men residing in Boston and the vicinity are cordially invited to become members of the Society.

Union for Christian Work, Providence, R. I.—Organized March 3, 1868.

The aim of this Society is to furnish such occupation, amusements, and surroundings as shall weaken the power of temptation and arouse the higher nature of all who come within its influence.

Its present work is as follows: 1. A library and pleasant room for reading and amusement. Open daily from 3 to 9.30 p.m. Sundays from 2 to 9 p.m. Free to all. 2. A well-selected library of nearly 4,000 volumes. 3. Rooms for street boys, open Saturday nights during the winter months in various parts of the city, where, by books and games, by sympathy and kindness, they can be influenced for good. 4. Depot for collecting books, magazines, and papers, and distributing them to seamen sailing from this port, and to such others as need them. 5. Fruit and flower mission, for the distribution of fruit and flowers to the sick and infirm, the hospitals, the homes for the aged, etc. 6. Suburban rides and health excursions for invalids and others. Other work of a kindred nature will be undertaken as opportunity presents itself.

William T. Crandell, President; Miss Alice R. Wolf, Secretary; William M. Bailey, Jr., Treasurer.

HUNGARY.

Unitarianism was introduced into Transylvania in 1563 by the influence of Blandrata, an Italian physician, who went thither in the train of the Polish Princess Isabella. The real apostle of Unitarianism, however, by whom the church was actually founded, was Francis David. Born of humble parents in Klausenburg, in 1510, he completed his academical education at Wittenberg, and thus had the privilege of coming face to face with the great Reformation leaders. From 1540 we find him contributing his full share of energy and thought to the consolidation of the Reformed churches in Transylvania. Up to 1557 he seems to have held the Lutheran tenets. In 1564 he was elected bishop of the Calvinists and Court chaplain to Prince John Sigismund; but soon after, in conjunction with Blandrata, he cast the whole weight of his influence in favor of the Unitarian movement, and about 1568 was chosen bishop of the new religious community. In the same year the Edict of religious liberty was passed at the Diet of Torda, and the Unitarian faith — or, as it was called, the "Klausenburg Confession" — spread rapidly among the Hungarian and Szekler population. In spite of the death of Prince John in 1571, and the election of a Catholic prince, no fewer than 322 Unitarian clergymen were present at the Synod of Torda in 1578. In June, 1579, however, the venerable reformer, Francis David, was sentenced to be imprisoned in the fortress of Deva, and there, some five months later, he died. In Prince John Sigismund the Unitarian church had been deprived of its protector and munificent patron, and in Francis David it lost its apostle and prophet. Persecution after persecution followed, through the three next centuries; but though many churches, including all those in Hungary proper, succumbed, the main body of Transylvanian Unitarianism has still held its course, and to-day is a strong, and though poor, yet enlightened and deeply earnest community.

The present number of Unitarian churches in Hungary is 108, including that recently formed at Buda-Pesth, and the ecclesia filia at Holdmező Vasarhely on the Great Plain. These are under Bishop Joseph Ferencz, eight Rural Deans, and an Ecclesiastical Council of 350 members. The number of professed Unitarians in Hungary is estimated at fully sixty thousand. The number of young people confirmed in 1882 was 740. The educational institutions of the Hungarian Unitarians have exercised a powerful influence far beyond the limits of the congregations. Nearly all the churches have had day schools attached to them ever since their establishment over three centuries ago. The higher education is provided for by the College or High School at Klausenburg, and the Middle Schools at Thorda and Szekely-Keresztur, there having been several other collegiate institutions before the times of the persecution. The Klausenburg College, founded by Prince John Sigismund about 1569, had, in 1883, 348 students; 19 in the theological department, 259 in the eight gymnasial classes, and 70 in the elementary section. Of these 126 were Unitarians, 43 Calvinists, 20 Lutherans, 40 Roman Catholics, 24 Greek Church, and 25 Jews. The English language is obligatory in the theological department, and in that year 14 students in the gymnasial classes studied English voluntarily. The present Rector is Professor John Kovács. There are also five theological professors, nine ordinary professors, and about an equal number of assistant professors and teachers. The amount paid annually in scholarships and prizes is about $5,000; and there is also a hospital for sick pupils, and a college library of about 26,000 volumes. The buildings of this institution are sadly overcrowded, and greatly need extension. At Thorda there are 183 pupils and 14 professors and teachers; and at Szekely-Keresztur 152, under nine professors and teachers. The number of Unitarian scholars in these two institutions is 63 and 110, respectively. At Thorda the library contains only 2,170 volumes, but at Szekely-Keresztur there is a collection of 10,040 volumes. The General Synod is held once in four years, presided over by the Bishop. About $5,000 has been collected by Mr. Kovács for the Channing Professorship, and invested. Additions continue to be made to the religious literature of the Hungarian Church; and its chief organ, The Christian Seedower, prospers under the joint editorship of Professor Kovács and the Rev. Denis Peterfy, First Minister of the Klausenburg Church.

GERMANY, HOLLAND, AND SWITZERLAND.

The ministers connected with the Protestant Unions of Germany and Holland, and the Free Christian Union of Switzerland hold opinions which are approximate to those of Unitarians, but the names commonly applied to them are Liberals, Moderns, and Reformers. The recently formed "Church of the People," under Dr. Kalthoff, in Berlin, is an independent movement of a more advanced type.

BELGIUM.

Liberal Protestant services are conducted by Mons. J. Hocart, every Sunday at 11 A. M., throughout the year (excepting August and September), in the Hall at the Bourse, Brussels. — M. Hocart's private address is 20 Rue de Neuchatel, St. Gilles, Bruxelles.

Hymn and Tune Book,

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE HOME, AND SERVICES FOR CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP. Revised edition.

This is a revised edition of the book published by the Association in 1868, and furnished with or without the Services, also revised; being a square 16mo, of 517 pages, with the Services, and 399 without.

The hymns and tunes that could best be spared are replaced by others, new and old, gathered from the ample resources supplied within the last ten years by composers and compilers, of all denominations, in England and America.

The Services consist chiefly of selections from the Psalms and Prophets, with a few prayers and collects from several liturgies already published. They are printed in large type, and add but one hundred and twenty pages to the hymn-book; and, whether for home or church, offer choicest readings of psalm and prayer.

The books, handsomely and substantially bound in morocco, can be had at the following prices: Hymn and Tune Book, with Services, $1.50; Hymn and Tune Book, $1.25; with a discount of twenty per cent to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen. In Turkey morocco, gilt edges, at $3.50 and $3.00 respectively, with a discount of ten per cent to societies and clergymen.

The price of the Services alone, bound in cloth, is 60 cts., or $6.00 a dozen.

☞ The former edition is in print, the prices being the same as for the revised.

Hymn, Tune, and Service Book,

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS. Square 16mo, 220 pp. $6.00 a dozen; single copies, 60 cts.

This work consists of two parts. The first contains thirty-three forms of service, to which is added a collection of prayers and of collects and closing prayers. The second part contains 249 hymns, and 121 tunes, chants, and select pieces.
